

Call For Holding To Action

Secretary Acheson Makes it on The Foreign Aid Bill To Congress

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(P)—The Senate sent the whole $5,723,000,000 foreign aid bill back to its appropriations committee today.

The decision was made in the process of unwinding a parliamentary snarl over an amendment which would have forced the economic cooperation administration to buy $1,500,000,000 in surplus American farm commodities.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(P)—Secretary of State Acheson appealed to a balky Congress today to suspend judgement on the $1,450,000,000 foreign arms aid bill until all the evidence is in.

Acheson told a news conference that points raised on the program by several members of Congress are sound in theory but that they talked in a misapprehension of the facts.

Evidently referring to the suggestion of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) that only an interim plan should be adopted now, Acheson said it is a good idea to have an interim program.

But he declared that is exactly what the administration has proposed.

To committee Thursday

The evidence of which Acheson spoke will be presented to Congress beginning with his appearance before the House Foreign Affairs committee tomorrow.

Discussing that appearance, the secretary refused to answer directly a reporter's inquiry as to whether the United States government has information "that the Russians are actively preparing for war."

Acheson said that was what he called one of those loaded numbers.

If he replied yes, the reporters would make a lot out of that, he said, if he replied no, they would make a lot out of that; so his decision was to make no comment at all in direct response.

He did say that all the information the department has on the Russian situation will be placed at the disposal of Congress. But he declared emphatically that it will not contain any hush-hush or frightening stuff.

Acheson said he has seen stories to the effect that State Department has some secret information or great secret report which it plans to use in support of the arms proposal.

He declared that is not the case at all; rather he said administration officials have collected all the pertinent information bearing on the question of assistance to other free nations and all this information will be presented to Congress.

A reporter then asked Acheson "Is it not a fact that the department has information pertaining to Russia's armed forces which is not at this time public property or has never been disclosed?"

Acheson said he certainly hopes that is the case and that of course it is. He added laughing that this government also has information about Britain, French and other national armed forces which has never been made public.

No Direct Response

Another reporter asked: "Do we have information now that the Russians are actively preparing for war?"

Acheson declined to give a direct response.

Acheson's appearance before the House Foreign Affairs committee tomorrow will be in support of President Truman's call for what he described as "urgently needed" weapons for Atlantic pact signers.

Reception of this proposal there appeared likely to be somewhat less hostile than by the combined membership of the Senate's Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees.

Early checks indicated a substantial majority of that group of 26 Senators will oppose the $1,450,000,000 program. Most of them apparently will insist upon much less expensive, stop-gap weapons until the projected North Atlantic council can set up a committee map over-all defense of non-Communist areas in Europe.

Sensors Byrd (D-Va.) and Bridges (R-N.H.) joined the rank of those opposing the President's proposal. Both are members of the armed services committee and both voted for ratification of the Atlantic pact.

Representatives' Vote On Poll Tax

High Military Command to Fly to Europe

To Discuss Pact With Leaders of Its Signatories

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(P)—The United States military high command will fly to Europe Friday to discuss the arms aid program with the military chiefs of the Atlantic pact nations.

The national military establishment, announcing this today, said the commanders of the army, navy and air force, "will discuss matters of mutual interest, including the proposed military organization under the North Atlantic pact, with the military chiefs of European signatory nations of the pact and will acquaint themselves with current conditions in Europe."

They will also "gain first hand information on the status of United States forces" in Europe, the announcement said.

The three military leaders—Army General Omar Bradley, Admiral Louis Denfeld, and Air Force General Hoyt S. Vandenberg—make up the joint chiefs of staff.

Maj. Gen. A. M. Gruenther, director of the joint staff which is a working agency of the joint chiefs, will accompany the commanders. They will appear before congressional committees considering the military assistance program on Friday before taking off.

They will visit Frankfurt, London, Paris and Vienna before returning in about ten days.

Not Visit All Signatories

"Limitation of time prevents a visit to each European signatory nation of the North Atlantic pact, the NME said. "However, it is hoped that talks can be arranged with military representatives for North Atlantic pact member nations at any place covered in the itinerary convenient to them.

"A representative of the joint chiefs of staff has already begun informal talks with a representative of the Canadian chiefs of staff on the question of military organization under the North Atlantic pact."

Although the chiefs have made inspection trips abroad individually, this will be their first such trip as a group.

However, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will not go to Europe with the group.

Eisenhower has been serving as temporary chairman of the joint chiefs group, but returned to his Columbia university presidency post last spring and now comes to Washington only for occasional conferences.

Hospital Has 12 Polio Patients

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 27.—(P)—Darleer Schell, 13, of Huntsville was admitted to the University of Missouri Hospitals here late yesterday as a polio patient, and another patient, Lou Anna Byerley of Souder, was transferred from the polio ward to the crippled children's clinic.

The Byerley child, second polio patient to be admitted to the hospitals in the current outbreak of the disease, has recovered from the contagious phase, and was transferred to the clinic for recuperation.

Yesterday's admission and today's transfer left the polio case load at the hospital still at 12.

The Schell child was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Schell, a graduate nurse. Mrs. Schell will serve as a special nurse for her daughter while the need continues, and then will join the hospital staff as a general duty nurse for the duration of the epidemic.

Minnesota State Senator Drowns

FORT FRANCES, Ont., July 27.—(P)—C. A. Dahle, Minnesota state senator, drowned yesterday near this northwestern Ontario town.

The similarity of names led to diffusion of a report that former U. S. Senator Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota was the drowning victim. Ball, however, was at his summer home at Afton, Minn.

Mayor Bagby Speaks to Lions on The 'State of City'

Speaking before one of the largest attended meetings of the Lions club in several weeks, Mayor Julian H. Bagby gave a talk "State of the City", in which he reviewed the administrative activities over the past three years.

Mayor Bagby gave practically the same report as he made before other civic clubs in the past few weeks. However, he called attention to various projects the city had in mind at the time of the other talks and said today some had been completed and others were well on their way to completion.

One in mind is the redecorating and repairing of the outside of the City hall. Work was resumed on this today after several days delay and should be complete by August 21, the opening day of the Missouri State Fair. He also called attention all the street sign markers have been installed, and repairs on the incinerator have been completed.

Lighting Improvements

In his talk he made reference to the Street Light improvements after which Noel T. Tweet of the Missouri Public Service Co., told of improvements have not been completed as yet but work was progressing.

Mayor Bagby in his talk stated he felt the civic organizations should report from time to time regardless who is Mayor of the City.

Mr. Tweet, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

The Lions club board of directors voted to investigate spraying of the City of Sedalia as a health measure, and will seek the cooperation of all civic clubs of the city as well as the citizens as individuals.

It was pointed out the spray is not to be done as a polio preventative but strictly as a health measure.

District Convention

Announcement of the District 26-C convention to be held at Brookfield, on Sunday, July 31, was made. Sedalia will seek to have a Deputy District Governor elected.

Guests today were Capt. Russell Peck of Wichita Falls, Tex., of the club, Stanton Hudson of C. W. Stephenson, James Hesserick, St. Louis of George James.

Virgil Herrick gave a brief report on the activities of various committees working on the Lions Club Air Show to be held at the Sedalia Municipal Airport on Sunday, August 14.

The Lions Club voted a plaque to be presented to the Pettis County 4-H club which is winner of the Livestock show to be held at the Missouri Pacific Stockyards on August 19.

A. W. Haller, president, presided over the meeting.

Bill Signing Day For Smith

Among Them an Extension as to Age Assistance

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 27.—(P)—A new bridge over the Mississippi river near Caruthersville, Mo., came a step nearer reality today.

Gov. Forrest Smith said he would sign during the day two bills setting up the machinery for a Missouri-Tennessee commission to issue revenue bonds and build the bridge. When paid for by tolls, the bridge would become free.

As a starter Smith appointed M. R. Rowland, S. P. Reynolds and Neil W. Helm, all of Caruthersville, to sign the proposed interstate compact with a similar group from Tennessee. When the compact is approved by Congress and in effect, five bridge commissioners from each state will be appointed.

A ferry now links the two states at Caruthersville.

Extend Qualifications

Also to be signed today is a bill extending for two more years the present property qualifications for old age assistance—allowing a single person to own property worth $2,500 and a married couple property worth $3,000.

Under a new feature if a couple owned property between $2,500 and $3,000 and one of them died, the surviving spouse could still get assistance. Income from odd jobs also would be exempt in figuring eligibility.

Other bills to be signed would: Clear the way for establishing a metropolitan water district to serve communities in eastern Jackson county.

Let the city of Independence take over water district mains in recently annexed territory.

Make the City of St. Louis teachers' retirement system conform with the state system.

Increase salaries in the St. Louis circuit attorney's office.

Concert Thursday Night at Park

Dollar Crisis Puts a Crimp In Britain

Request to U. S. For More Aid is Like Bombshell

By Harvey Hudson

PARIS, July 27.—(P)—Britain's critical dollar shortage has exploded into an economic crisis for all the Marshall plan countries.

The unexpected British request for $624,000,000 more American aid than had been tentatively allotted to her, broke like a bombshell among the other countries.

This was especially true since the others had become resigned to a slash in available funds.

Leaders of the Democratic party in the United States Congress agreed yesterday to an appropriation of about 16 per cent below what the European countries had hoped to receive.

One French official said yesterday the British request "could break the Marshall plan wide open."

The British request was transmitted Saturday in a secret note to the organization for European economic cooperation (OEEC). This is the organization which splits up the Marshall plan funds. Contents of the note leaked out to the press yesterday.

Threat to Living Standards

The British said revised calculations showed the sterling area would have a dollar deficit of $1,547,000,000 for the year starting July 1. It implied that Britain would need that much dollar aid or would have to cut its imports and undergo a drop in living standards.

For 1948-1949 Britain received $1,239,000,000 when the requests originally were submitted for 1949-50 Britain estimated she would need $1,114,000,000. She pointed out that this was a ten per cent cut from the previous year.

The American economic cooperation administration, in a general scaling down of all requests reduced Britain's share to $923,000,000. This amount was based on an American appropriation of $4,566,000,000.

Congress has trimmed the amount still further and prospects are for an appropriation of less than $4,000,000,000.

If Britain's newly proposed request were granted it would mean then that she would be getting about 40 per cent of American aid.

It also would mean other European countries would have to give up dollars to help Britain.

The crisis arises because all decisions of the OEEC must be unanimous. If Britain should hold out for a bigger share in the face of the greatly reduced number of dollars, she might wreck all hope of real cooperation.

Will Have 17 High School Bands

Seventeen Missouri high school bands have made definite arrangements to attend the Missouri State Fair here, August 21-28, it has been announced by Band Superintendent Guy Peabody, and many other bands probably will be here. Those now committed to making the trip and playing concerts at the fair are from Butler, Camden Point, Higginsville, Lawson, Rolla, Jefferson City, St. Peter's high school of Jefferson City, Oregon, Cole Camp, Eldon, Armstrong, Versailles, Lamar, Nevada, Strafford, Brunswick and Aurora. The bands will play individually and en masse and this year, for the first time in the fair's history, recordings will be made of the band music.

This nomination, they added, likely will be accompanied by that of Archibald Alexander, unsuccessful Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate from New Jersey last year, to be an assistant secretary of the army.

The third important post was listed for Marx Leva, special assistant and general counsel to Secretary of Defense Johnson. Leva is slated to become an assistant secretary of the department of defense under unification legislation for which Mr. Truman is pressing Congress.

The officials said Mr. Truman has been holding up the nominations to await developments on this legislation, designed to give Secretary Johnson new powers over the army, navy and air force.

The legislation is now being thrashed out in a Senate-House conference committee.

Condition of Ambassador Is Satisfactory

LONDON, July 27.—(P)—The U. S. Embassy said today the condition of Ambassador Lewis Douglas, who underwent an eye operation Monday, is satisfactory.

The ambassador is at Middlesex hospital. The operation was to remove a cataract which formed after he snagged the eye with a hook while fishing April 4.

J. C. Kirkpatrick Speaker To a Democratic Group

James C. Kirkpatrick, executive secretary to Governor Forrest Smith, was the principal speaker at a stag meeting of Democrats held in the Ambassador Room of the Hotel Bothwell, Tuesday night. More than 200 men were in attendance.

Mr. Kirkpatrick told of the Democratic Administration and what it has accomplished since the first of the year when Governor Smith was inaugurated. In his talk he also paid a compliment to the present City Administration headed by Mayor J. H. Bagby, and also praised Pettis county for the representation it now has in Jefferson City in Representative Dan Doty.

Committee Secretary Here

Jack Hackethorn, executive secretary of the state Democratic committee, was also present at the meeting and gave a short talk as did D. Kelly Scruton, Chairman of the City Democratic Committee.

The speakers were introduced by Emmet P. Sullivan, County Chairman, presided and introduced the speakers.

Judge E. W. Couey, chairman of the State Board of Probation and Parole, accompanied Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Hackethorn to Sedalia for the meeting.

Preceding the talks a buffet luncheon was served during which time songs were led by City Councilman John Vandekamp, who also sang two solos. Robert M. Overstreet, former Councilman and member of the School Board accompanied at the piano.

Bond Issue Loses At Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 27.—(P)—A proposed $6,500,000 bond issue to build a new city power plant lost in a special election Tuesday, 3,859 to 4,004.

The city's registered voting strength is 36,501. A four-sevenths majority was required to approve the bonds.

After the votes were counted, M. D. Lightfoot, produce broker who spearheaded opposition to the bonds, said he would call a mass meeting and demand:

1. That the city contract for an additional 20,000 kilowatts of power from the Southwest Power administration, expected to come from the Bull Shoals dam. The city already has arranged for 10,000 kilowatts.

2. An immediate 20 per cent reduction in utility rates.

3. Resignation of the entire city utilities board.

The Chamber of Commerce and organized labor supported the bond issue.

New Effort On Education Federal Aid

General View no Action be Reached For This Year

By Barney Livingstone

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(P)—A new move started in Congress today to rescue federal aid to education from the religious controversy now surrounding it.

Rep. Morton (R-Ky.) disclosed he is drafting a bill based on the principle of state need. It would omit restrictions on parochial school assistance which have been denounced by Roman Catholic churchmen.

The extent to which Morton's proposal might take Congress off the spot was not immediately apparent. The general view is that nothing will be done this year.

He disclosed his intentions after sitting in on a closed-door Republican session headed by House GOP leader Martin of Massachusetts. Martin had no comment at all, but Morton later told reporters those present did not object to his idea.

Based On State Needs

Morton's plan to base federal aid according to state needs follows the idea expressed last June by former President Herbert Hoover.

Hoover, in a letter to Rep. McConnell (R-Pa.), recommended at that time that federal funds should be made available only to states which need them, and then based on specific standards of education.

He denounced as "a pork-barrel appendage" formulas which would allow $5 per pupil per year in federal funds to every state, whether needed or not.

This proviso is included in both the Senate-passed bill, and the Catholic-attacked measure introduced in the House by Rep. Barden (D-NC)—both of which are now stalemate in the House Labor committee.

Morton's bill would maintain a hands-off attitude on the uses to which the states would put the money, as does the Senate bill. Expenditures of aid funds would be governed entirely by state school laws.

Morton gave no figure on the amount of aid he contemplates. The Senate and Barden bills authorize $300,000,000 a year to the states, to be apportioned according to formulas based on the number of school-age children.

Already touchy over the school-aid fight, some members of Congress viewed the Hoover position as ground for new controversy instead of less.

Increase Pressure

Public pressure continued to mount, meanwhile, from both sides in the bitter dispute touched off by Francis Cardinal Spellman's denunciation of the Barden bill as "anti-Catholic," and his subsequent exchange with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt over what he called her "anti-Catholic bias."

French Assembly Approval

Sanction by Two More Houses Put Into Full Accord

By the Associated Press

The North Atlantic treaty was approved today by the French national assembly the pact now needs only the approval of the French and Dutch upper houses of parliament before it goes into effect.

The French assembly approval was by a vote of 398 to 187. It came after an all-night session marked by heated debate which at one point boiled over into fist-fighting between Communists and Rightists.

The treaty provides that it will come into force as soon as the ratifications of the majority of the signatories, including Belgium, Canada, France, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Britain, and the United States are deposited. This means that only final action by the French and Dutch upper houses is awaited.

The British financial crisis has touched off a crisis in all Marshall Plan countries. Britain has requested an additional $624,000,000 to meet her emergency needs. A French spokesman said the British request "could break the Marshall Plan wide open."

An American economist in Paris said the other western European nations "will never stand for" the British request. The other participating nations had become resigned to a slash in American recovery aid.

Support Recovery Fund

In Washington Democratic party leaders said they would support a recovery fund of about 16 per cent below what the European countries had hoped to receive.

The Chinese Communist war machine rolled further into Hunan province today. Nationalist government spokesmen estimated the Communists have plunged 500,000 men into the renewed fighting.

Reports from Communist-held Nanking said the Communist high command has ordered capture of Canton before August 15. Martial law has been proclaimed in Canton. Observers said the Communists are holding up the formation of a new national government until after the capture of Canton. It is expected to fall like a ripe plum when the Communists overrun Hunan.

The Communist government in predominantly Catholic Poland today forbade Roman Catholic priests to excommunicate any Pole belonging to the Communist party. The government said the papal decree threatening excommunication of Communist supporters is an "act of aggression" against the state.

At the same time the Polish government announced acceptance of a church proposal to negotiate a church-state agreement. It looked like a victory of the government which had insisted the hierarchy stop its "anti-state" activities before the government would negotiate.

Warn Americans Staying in China

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(P)—Secretary of State Acheson said today that Americans remaining in China face the danger of being treated as hostages by the Communists.

He told a news conference that Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart, in preparing to return to the United States for consultations, has run into numerous difficulties put in his way by Communist authorities at Nanking.

Acheson also said the state department has been advised that Randall Gould, editor of the American-owned Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury, has been held since noon yesterday (Shanghai time) without food, water or sleep by newspaper plant workers as the result of a labor dispute.

This instance was used by the secretary in a general discussion of the China situation, which he said reinforced repeated U. S. official pleas that American citizens leave that country if possible.

Latest state department records list 5,023 Americans still in China. Of these 1,140 are in the British crown colony of Hong Kong.

The largest group is in Communist-held Shanghai and is estimated at 1,580.

Cardinal Spellman's Position May Break Catholic-Jewish Political Alliance in Big Eastern Cities

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, July 27 — One partial by-product of Cardinal Spellman's attack on Mrs. Roosevelt is a new political alignment which may reshape the politics of the entire nation. It may spell the difference between the election of a Democratic and Republican president in 1952, and a Republican and Democratic Congress in 1950.

To understand what is happening, you have to remember that for the past two decades there has been a close political alliance between Catholics and Jews in New York City, and in many other big industrial cities, such as Boston and Philadelphia.

The combination of Catholics and Jews in New York consistently carried the state for Roosevelt, and for Al Smith before him. It was an almost unbeatable combination.

However, Democratic political leaders are now privately and mournfully predicting that the alliance is almost certain to fall apart. They base this upon two factors:

One, is the much publicized attack on Mrs. Roosevelt by Cardinal Spellman, which has focused nation-wide attention on religious issues.

Two, is the much less publicized opposition of Cardinal Spellman to ex-Governor Herbert Lehman, who had hoped to be the first Jew in history to be elected to the United States senate.

Cardinal Opposes Lehman

Lehman, who served as governor of New York longer than any other man, was considered a sure winner for the senate seat of ex-Senator Bob Wagner. As governor, he had received the support of all religious groups. However, the cardinal and Lehman got into an argument last year over the banning of The Nation, a magazine, from New York public school libraries because The Nation had published a series of articles by Paul Blanchard critical of the Catholic church.

Lehman took the position at that time that, since the New York public schools are attended by Protestants and Jews as well as Catholics, their reading material should not be fixed by Catholics alone. Lehman felt that the Catholic church had every right to set the reading material in its own parochial schools, but not in public schools which are supported by the taxpayers.

Cardinal Spellman, however, vigorously disagreed with Lehman and wrote him a sharp personal letter.

Now that Lehman is available for the Senate, he has received word from Catholic leaders that, because of his stand on the censorship of The Nation, he would have definite church opposition. Naturally this would make it difficult, if not impossible, for him to win. This has been the chief reason why the ex-governor has delayed in announcing his candidacy.

This Catholic opposition to Lehman, coupled with the Cardinal's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt, who has always had strong Jewish support, is why Democratic leaders are so worried over continuation of the Jewish-Catholic political alliance in the big eastern cities.

FDR, Jr., Talked With Cardinal

In the light of Cardinal Spellman's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt, it is interesting to recall a conference which took place between the cardinal and her son before young Franklin ran for Congress last spring.

FDR, Jr., called on the cardinal in order to inform him that his wife was planning to sue for divorce. Young Franklin is an Episcopalian but he called on the Catholic prelate because of the fact that about 25 per cent of the voters in the 20th New York district are Catholic and he wanted their support in his congressional race.

Roosevelt made it clear that he did not want the divorce, but that his wife, the former Ethel du Pont, insisted on it. Cardinal Spellman deplored the divorce, but advised that if Mrs. Roosevelt, Jr., demanded it, then FDR, Jr., should refrain from marrying again.

The cardinal took no part in Roosevelt's subsequent congressional race, which he won by a substantial majority.

Note — About 60 per cent of the voters in Roosevelt's district are Jewish, with 25 per cent Catholic. He drew support from both groups.

McCarran's Personal Immigrants

Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada, whose name means "keep out" to Europe's homeless refugees, actually begged the Senate the other day to admit 250 more people into this country.

It turned out, however, that he only wanted sheepherders to tend flocks in the west. McCarran wanted to import them, not from displaced persons camps, but from the Pyrenees mountains along the Franco-Spanish border.

This was a curious request coming from McCarran who, alone, stands in the way of 400,000 displaced persons (including 5,000 sheep herders) who wish to start a new life in the United States. As chairman of the Senate judiciary committee, he has been able to block a bill rectifying the 80th Congress' D.P.

act which discriminates against Jews and Catholics.

Thus, Senators were a little baffled at the spectacle of the gentleman from Nevada pleading to raise the immigration bars. In fact, he almost got down on his knees.

"There is no more important bill on the calendar than this one," begged McCarran. Ferretly, he described the plight of the west's neglected sheep and the need for sheep herders from abroad.

But Sen. Robert Hendrickson, New Jersey Republican, gave McCarran a taste of his own medicine.

"As I understand," remarked Hendrickson slyly, "there are in some of the displaced persons camps over 5,000 sheep herders."

He blocked the bill.

Elmer Bets With Power Lobby

The private power lobby Senator Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma Democrat, out to the race track to celebrate after he put across their big victory over public power in the secrecy of the Senate appropriations committee.

Thomas led the fight behind closed doors to cut off funds for transmission lines, to carry power from government built dams to the public, leaving it to the private electric companies to distribute government power — with higher rates to consumers and bigger profits to the companies.

So, the day after Thomas won this fight, he was treated to a royal evening at the Laurel, Md., race track. His hosts were ex-governor W. J. Holloway, $75-a-day lobbyist for Oklahoma Gas and Electric, and Richard K. Lane, president of the Public Service Company of Oklahoma — the same lobbyists who have been dictating Thomas' vote on public power.

The party bet generously on the harness races, but the senator lost money — proving that he isn't as good at speculating on horses as on the commodity market. His wife, however, cleaned up.

FDR, Jr., Gets Most Unusual Mail

Mrs. Mesta is Going Third-class

By Peter Edson

WASHINGTON, July 27 — New York congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., can lay claim to the most unusual batch of mail received by any legislator on Capitol Hill. While it's usual for congressmen to be swamped by appeals to vote for this or that bill, young Roosevelt has been swamped by offers of marriage. The deluge began right after his divorce by Ethel duPont and it hasn't let up.

Luxembourg Gets a Rating

President Truman has designated the newly established American legation at Luxembourg as only a "class three" establishment. That means Mrs. Perle Mesta, the new minister, will get a $17,500 salary. Class one ambassadors get $25,000, class two gets $20,000.

Who's Gonna Pay The Bills

Add to the mystery over President's Truman's secret conference on British participation in atomic bomb production this further question: Who will pay the bills? With the British government in admitted financial straits, it is difficult to see where the money can be raised to duplicate the billion-dollar Oak Ridge, Hanford or Los Alamos plants, and to buy the uranium ore for processing.

Via Government Taxi

Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, chief of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, is in the dog house again for sending government staff cars on long drives just to give him fancy taxi service befitting his rank when he steps off his plane. Recently the general inspected a new dam at Oneonta, N. Y. He flew to the site with his staff in a special DC-3 transport. The party was met on arrival by three staff cars. They had been driven overland from Baltimore, Md. — roughly 200 miles. They carried the inspection party from the airport to the dam site, then back to the airport where the general boarded his plane for the return flight. The three Army staff cars were then driven back to Baltimore empty. Aneonta taxi company said it would have been glad to furnish this service for $10. Two years ago, when he was still district engineer in the Missouri Valley, the then Col. Pick was similarly criticized for sending staff cars on long trips to meet him at airports.

The Best "Europeans"

Dr. Gunnar Myrdal of Sweden, secretary of the United Nations Economic Committee for Europe, was in Washington recently for his annual visit. Discussing European recovery before a World Affairs Center meeting, Myrdal told about the difficulty in promoting trade between European countries because of their intense nationalism. Then he declared, "Really the best 'Europeans' in Europe today are the Americans administering the Marshall Plan."

U. S. is Still at War

Trying to figure the motives of congressmen opposed to European recovery, the North Atlantic Pact and the military assistance program has been difficult for officials in charge of those programs. Sincere advocates of economy, who believe that the United States can't afford to contribute all this foreign aid, are hard to answer. The isolationists who hold that the United States can exist without any international cooperation whatsoever, just can't be talked to because they won't listen to any reasoning. Best argument presented against both these groups thus far is that the United States is still at war—the cold war. If the United States loses this cold war, it may become involved in a hot one. The cost of a shooting war will be vastly greater than any cold war. Whether or not the United States wins this cold war is said to be entirely dependent on the strength of economic and military forces built up in western Europe in the next few years.

Now It Will be Told

Big riddle of the thick "Chinese White Paper" which State Department will release next week is the contents of Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer's secret report on China. There are two theories on what the Wedemeyer report will reveal. One is that it recommended a direct military assistance program to help Chiang Kai-shek fight the Communists. The other is that the report was so critical of the Chiang government that it had to be suppressed to avoid giving the appearance of pulling the American rug out from under the Chinese feet.

All Babies Do Not Develop Wetting Control at Same Time

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

In small babies the process of emptying the bladder is automatic. As soon as the bladder is stretched to a certain point, the nerves carry the message to the spinal cord and the bladder is automatically emptied.

Rather gradually the sensation of a full bladder begins to be carried up to the brain itself and when this develops it is possible for the child to control wetting. Until the message is received in the brain, however, it is useless to expect a baby to have control over his bladder functions.

Bladder control comes slowly and parents should not be concerned if their hopeful does not develop complete control as soon as some other child they know about.

May be a Cause

Sometimes a child wets during the day or night at 3 or 4 years old, or even beyond. Usually this is a sign of either rebellion on the part of the child or a feeling of insecurity. Sometimes such children have had the importance of keeping dry overemphasized to them and take a childish delight in frustrating their parents.

When this is the reason the parents ought to pay less attention to the whole thing and to show no signs of annoying or any other emotion when it occurs. This is often enough to solve the problem.

A healthy baby usually begins to establish bowel control between 1 and 2 years old. When the baby is 9 or 10 months old it can be placed for short periods on the "potty." Most infants begin to catch on to the idea quickly, especially if praise is given for good results.

The "potty" should be used regularly at the same time of day, usually after the first morning meal. Neither the mother nor the baby should be worn out by keeping it up too long if success is not achieved.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

QUESTION: Is it harmful for a person with stomach ulcers to drink a quart of buttermilk a day?

ANSWER: Probably not, but the diet for a person with stomach ulcers should be outlined by his physician.

• Q's and A's

Q—Which state has the strictest divorce laws?

A—New York state. It is the only state the Union which grants divorces only on grounds of adultery.

Q—What is the seating capacity of Crosley Field?

A—Crosley Field in Cincinnati has the smallest seating capacity in the National League, with 30,000 seats. Ebbetts Field in Brooklyn has 32,111 seats.

Q—What is the Rush-Bagot Treaty?

A—This treaty, signed in 1817, is one of the most important in American history. It limited naval armaments of the United States and Canada on the Great Lakes.

Q—What is the obverse of a coin?

A—It is the side of a coin bearing the principal image or inscription, or in those of the United State, the date.

Q—Who invented football?

A—Football was not invented but was an outgrowth of early Greek and Roman games. Undoubtedly the game known in the United States as football traces directly to the English game of Rugby, though the modifications have been many. Informal football was played as early as 1840, but the first formal intercollegiate football game in this country was played in 1869.

Q—Why has our flag seven red and six white stripes, and not seven white and six red?

A—It is so arranged in order that the outer stripes be red. White stripes at top and bottom could not be easily seen at a distance.

Q—Can tattoo marks be removed?

A—Tattoo designs are made by piercing the skin with a needle-like instrument and rubbing in coloring material. They are indelible and can be removed only by removing the skin.

Couples Lose Out by Spending All Vacations Visiting Parents

Do young couples owe it to their parents to spend their vacation time each year visiting first one set of parents and then the other?

That's what a wife asks me who says she and her husband have done that for the past five summers.

She writes: "I think my husband and I both need a different sort of vacation this year. If we could just go off to some place we've never seen and have the refreshing experience of seeing new sights and doing new things."

"But we both know that if we write our folks that we aren't going to spend our vacation with them they'll be disappointed and hurt."

They shouldn't be. And if they are, perhaps you should be strong enough to go ahead and take the kind of vacation you want anyhow.

A man and his wife owe it to themselves and to their marriage to do something new and exciting and different once in a while. And vacation time is the ready-made time for having some new experiences.

Will Benefit From "Getting Away"

It's good for a husband and wife once in a while to get away from family and friends and share some new experiences that are theirs alone.

Your parents should understand this, but if they don't perhaps you can explain to your parents and your husband can explain to his why it is that you are planning a different sort of vacation this year.

Now and then someone (usually a man) comes out with the statement that husbands and wives should take separate vacations.

But what most couples need now and then is not a vacation from each other, but a vacation together from the "dailyness" of their existence.

You and your husband are forgetting that experience of year after year you spend your whole vacation time visiting your parents.

• REFUGE

By Mildred Crain and Harwood White
Copyright 1949 by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Mrs. Malone, a widow, is the cook for a strange, wealthy, arrogant woman who is fleeing in a gigantic trailer to a mysterious destination. With her is the Marchese Dellacasa, who speaks with an accent. The other servants include Victor, a Filipino houseboy who graduated from Columbia, and Rudy, the uniformed chauffeur who may once have been a movie actor. Rudy and Victor tell Mrs. Malone that Mrs. Everson, after the death of her wealthy husband, heard a lot of talk about the Atom Bomb and eventually became convinced that an atom war was impending. She is, in fact, running away from the Bomb. Mrs. Malone says that Mrs. Everson is crazy, but Rudy says the woman talked to the big scientists, entertained them and is convinced that the whole country soon will be blasted. "If there's any surviving done, Mrs. Everson will do it," he adds. "How?" asks Mrs. Malone.

A LOOK of what might have been embarrassment crossed Rudy's face, and he shifted uneasily as he answered Mrs. Malone.

"Well, she claims to know a safety zone . . . a spot protected, somehow, from the effects of radiation. Great guns! Don't ask me to explain it. I'm no Einstein!"

"She gave me a lot of gabble about 'the hydrogen bomb.' But all I really know is that about six months ago she got what she thought was the real dope, and then made her plans. First of all, she bought and equipped this outfit. I'd hate to think what it cost. Then she sold all of her property. Nobody, not even her lawyers, knew why. A rich woman's whim, they thought."

"Then a month ago, she put it up to me and Victor. It was like Noah with the animals: join up, or else."

"When it's over," she told us, "only a handful of human beings will be left alive. I intend to be one of them."

Mrs. Malone sat rigid and erect, her eyes fixed on Rudy's face. The sudden silence was somehow terrifying . . . a tangible pressure against the eardrums. She struggled against it, and against the rising tide of panic within her. She must be sensible.

"If the scientists really know it's going to happen," she reasoned, "they'll say so, won't they? They'll give us plenty of warning."

"Can you imagine the riot if they did? I don't think so."

"Then you really believe . . ."

Mrs. Malone began.

Rudy shrugged.

"I'm here. Victor's here."

His eyes flickered in the peculiar way they had.

"And the pay," he added, "is excellent."

Again that silence, while nobody moved.

"Where is it we're going?"

"Don't ask me! Mrs. Everson's got the maps. I gather she has some idea of discouraging pursuit."

RUDY glanced around the narrow room in which they sat. "As you said yourself, she's bringing civilization with her. It's all here, on wheels. Money. Liquor. Cigarettes. Matches. Electricity. Gas. Books. Caviar. Ice. Canned goods, including music—everything from Bach to Ellington. Jewels. Medicine. Ourselves, to wait on her. And a companion."

"Oh, him."

"Yes, him."

Rudy smiled, the flashing, indented smile that stirred so strangely in her memory. But his eyes held a certain disdain. "He's a little easier to explain," he said ironically. "During all those years of waiting Mrs. Everson thought about the gay world of fashion, but she didn't belong to it. So when she got out of hock, she was awkward and uncertain. That's why she hired the Marchese Dellacasa: he had experienced everything she had missed."

"For instance?"

"He's a cousin of kings, a man of fashion."

"If he's so important, why did he hire himself out to her?"

"He's not so important," Rudy said. "Not any more. He's a shabby refugee, as penniless as any tramp. But he remembers his past. And ye gods, but he has the gift of gab! Mrs. Everson listens and dreams of herself at Monte Carlo, the court of St. James, knocking them cold in a ski-suit at St. Moritz . . ."

Rudy broke off with a bitter laugh.

"I SOUND like a fashion magazine, don't I? Well, so does he! I've had to listen to him for hours on end. This mouldy aristocrat, talking about Wallie Windsor and the ancient art of China and gardens and beauty and old manuscripts and ballet dancers and protocol! And while he talks, I drive . . ."

Rudy flexed his fingers.

"My arms ache from steering that chromium ark toward Ararat!"

"Then why do you do it?"

"The pay is excellent," he reminded her. "Also I'm not sure. I want to see what comes next."

A strange sensation crept through Mrs. Malone's veins together with the blood of life. It was, she again recognized, fear. Suddenly she got up, pushing her chair back.

"I think I'll be going to my room," she said with decision. "I've listened to you. But I'm not believing a word you've said. Not one word!"

Guns Add Authoritative Touch

The men folk of the Eubanks school district near Ada, Oklahoma, got out their guns when they learned this abandoned school building — which they have been using as a church—was to be moved to another district. There hasn't been any trouble — they just don't want their church taken away. (AP Wirephoto)

W. H. Beech Sued For Huge Amount

WICHITA, Kas., July 27—(P)—A Michigan woman has filed suit for $101,264.35 damages against Walter H. Beech, president and founder of Beech Aircraft Corp., Wichita.

The plaintiff, Virginia Crow of Detroit, charges Beech with gross negligence and "wilful, wanton and reckless acts" which, she alleges, led to her permanent injury in a highway accident in Canada, Aug. 1, 1948.

She charges the 58-year-old Beech was riding in the front seat as she drove her car on route 16 between Lake Louise and Leamonton, near Edson, Alberta.

She was driving on loose, rutted gravel at about 30 miles an hour, her petition charges.

Beech "saw, knew, or should have known," that she was having difficulty driving," the petition recites, but "did start to put his hands all over the body of this plaintiff."

She "requested him several times to stop," it adds, but "he refused to stop" and "finally he jerked the right hand of the plaintiff off the wheel" and she "lost control of the automobile."

It veered, rolled over, reversed direction, and came to rest on its wheels, the petition says.

Stating that Beech has "the reputed wealth of approximately two and a half million dollars," the petition asks $50,000 punitive damages and $51,264.35 in other damages.

President To K. C. Centennial

KANSAS CITY, July 27—(P)—Herbert H. Wilson, President of the Chamber of Commerce, was named Tuesday general chairman of Kansas City centennial celebration next year.

President Harry S. Truman has promised to attend a special mass meeting and program June 3, 1950, the city's 100th birthday, Wilson reported.

Wilson said he had conferred with Postmaster Jesse Donaldson and arrangements have been completed to print 500 million 3-cent stamps, commemorating the centennial.

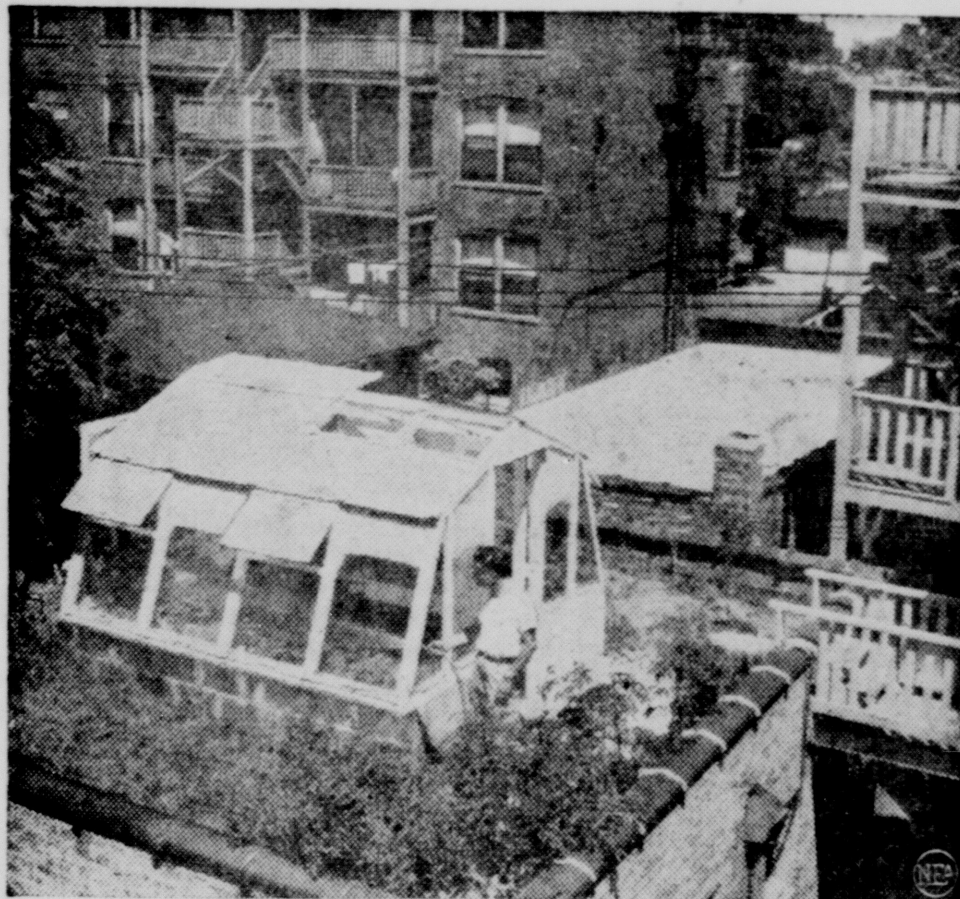

He also reported progress on a commemorative 50-cent piece to sell for $1, which is expected to raise about $250,000 for centennial expense.

Various events are planned from May to November, including an industrial show in the municipal auditorium.

After Death Dive

This is the largest piece of wreckage which remained after Russell Gilman Higby, Jr., 23, smashed his light plane into a vacant lot adjacent to a mausoleum in which the remains of his wife were interred. Higby terrorized Stockton, Calif., residents for an hour before he dove to his death by flying low and zooming between business buildings. His wife died in childbirth four months ago and Higby's parents said he had been despondent since. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Doctor Removes Own Appendix In Research

TELLURIDE, Colo., July 27 — (AP)—Dr. George C. Balderston was back at work Tuesday, two days after removing his own appendix.

Sunday afternoon at the American Legion hospital Dr. Balderston got all the proper tools together and summoned a friend, Dr. Richard Gladman.

He told Gladman to stand by in case anything went wrong.

Then, without using mirrors, Dr. Balderston went to work. In a sitting position he handled the entire operation on himself and after about 45 minutes he closed the wound with clamps and stitches.

The idea?

"I wanted to get a first-hand reaction of a patient to local anesthesia. And I wanted to study post operative effects."

He said he figured he had proved patients should "get back on their feet as soon as possible after surgery."

He said he felt fine.

Henry Ferguson Is Killed Near Versailles

Henry Ferguson, age 56, was killed instantly about 6:15 o'clock Tuesday evening when the truck in which he was a passenger hit a tree on the Coal Bank road, about seven and one-half miles south-east of Versailles.

Mr. Ferguson's son, Virgil, was driving the Ford truck at the time of the accident, when it apparently hit something in the road, causing the driver to lose control. It ran into a ditch and then swerved to the opposite side of the road and hit a tree. Mr. Ferguson was pinned between the truck and the tree. The door of the truck was open, indicating he may have tried to jump.

Clarence Hayes, who was following the truck on the road, called the Kidwell ambulance from Versailles, and Dr. B. L. Medicus, Morgan county coroner, who viewed the body.

Mr. Ferguson is survived by his widow and several children. His lived on a farm on the Coal Bank road about ten miles from Versailles.

Vacationist From Sedalia Visits Indian Trading Post

"They say the best things in life are free," said a woman who returned recently from a vacation trip. "And I believe it. We paid out a lot of money for various kinds of entertainment on our trip and the most fun we had didn't cost us a cent."

The woman then told of visiting an Indian trading post in New Mexico and was fascinated by the Indians who came there to buy things and get their mail, for the trading post was also a post office.

"When the mail came they began coming from all directions out of their little mud huts," she said. "I don't know why. Very few of them ever got mail. I don't know who they wrote to, in fact few of them could even write. But mail was a big event for them."

The first two days, she said, she didn't do anything but sit in the store and watch them. They came in the store without a word, stood there and just looked. If they got tired they would sit down on the floor. Sometimes they would go to the door or out on the porch and just look. It took them hours sometimes before they ever bought a thing and then it would likely be a popsicle. They were very fond of popsicles, she said.

Heavily Adorned
With the temperature a hundred or more she marveled at their clothing. Plush, in bright reds, blues and greens, with long tight sleeves, high necklines and several petticoats beneath the very full, long plush skirts. And jewelry galore. While the Sedalia woman, dressed as cool and comfortable as she could be, was so warm she felt like she was melting away. But the Indians didn't seem to be hot, they didn't even look warm. Maybe, she decided, the high neck, the tight sleeves and all the plush kept her out of the heat, but she didn't try it.

When she saw one covered wagon after another go by, each with a lamb attached to the back of the wagon, she began to wonder. Finally she asked the man at the trading post and he told her they were going to hold a squaw dance and they would go over that night—but they wouldn't start until ten o'clock. The squaw dance was something she would like to forget. It was the most weird thing I ever heard, she said. She told of the double circle of covered wagons and in the center was a huge fire. A fire was built in front of every other wagon to give light and it perhaps helped with the heat, too. Then began the dance with a chant that got on the Sedalia woman's nerves so bad that she was glad when the crowd decided to leave. There was a sick man there, too, all painted up and the medicine man going through all of his performance. The Squaw Dance lasted three nights. Everybody slept during the day.

Fight Further Limit on Gas

JEFFERSON CITY, July 26—(AP)—Eight Missouri gas utilities joined forces here last night to fight any further restriction of the amount of gas they get from Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line company.

The utilities involved serve about two dozen cities and towns in the northern half of Missouri, including Jefferson City, Columbia, Hannibal, Louisiana, Booneville, Moberly and Bowling Green. Last month Panhandle filed a new tariff schedule with the Federal Power Commission in Washington. In general it would put the distributing utilities on a contract basis, setting the maximum amount of gas available to them during the five winter months and a maximum on the peak day of winter.

It would also restrict the amount available to the utilities during the summer months—a new restriction.

"If carried into effect," the eight utilities said in a statement, "it will detrimentally affect the general public interests and seriously restrict an adequate supply of natural gas" to cities using gas from Panhandle lines.

The Federal Power Commission has suspended the new tariff and set a public hearing for August 22.

Upheld Election Of Senators

WASHINGTON, July 27—(AP)—The Senate rules committee today upheld the election of four senators, from West Virginia, Texas, Oklahoma and Michigan, whose seating had been contested.

Committee counsel Turner Smith told a reporter that the committee action is final in the Texas contest between Senator Johnson and his defeated opponent, former governor Coke Stevenson and in the Oklahoma 1948 runoff primary contest involving Senator Kerr and Gomer Smith, Democrats.

The committee recommended Senate adoption of its findings in the contests involving Senator Kilgore (D-WVa) and Tom Sweeney, Republican, dating from the 1946 general election and in the Michigan contest involving Senator Ferguson (R) and former Rep. Frank Hook.

Smith explained committee action is final in the Texas and Oklahoma contest since no formal petitions were filed. Johnson defeated Stevenson by the close margin of 87 votes in the 1948 primary.

In the West Virginia contest growing out of the 1946 general election Sweeney charged vote

Louis J. Knipp, Sr., and Norbert (John) Knipp, father and son, have been awarded a Missouri State highway road contract. It calls for grading and re-surfacing nine miles of farm-to-market road near Macon. The contract was let at a figure of $36,000. Two other sons of Louis, Arthur and Louis O., who have just completed building four miles of roads in Boone county at approximately $3,674, have just been let a four-mile contract in Saline county at $18,500. A fourth son, Joe, is looking after the soil conservation work while his father and brothers are taking care of highway projects. Louis J. Sr., is president of the Knipp Construction company, the sons being co-partners.

Lon Carey, formerly of Tipton, now of Kansas City, is recovering from a major operation he underwent Saturday morning at St. Joseph's hospital in Kansas City. Visiting him in the hospital Sunday were three sisters, Mrs. O. Schultz, Mrs. Jewell E. Richards and Miss Gussie Carey, and a brother, M. E. Carey, of Tipton. The sisters and brother were joined there by another sister, Mrs. Fred Esser, Sr., of Dewey, Okla., who came on to Tipton, returning to Oklahoma Monday, through Kansas City.

Tipton was host to a district meeting of Managers in the Rural Electrification association Tuesday. A business meeting was held in the afternoon at the Co-Mo offices and in the evening a picnic was enjoyed at the Lake of the Ozarks by the co-op managers, their wives and families. There are five rural electrification districts in Missouri, Tipton being a member of the Central group. Other cities in this district having co-operatives are Sedalia, Higginsville, Columbia, Fayette,

Athletics to Meet Jefferson City Eagles

The Sedalia Athletics will face some of their strongest opposition of the year tonight when they meet the Jefferson City Eagles, a colored team, at Liberty park. Game time is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock.

Manager Vincent Siegel of the Athletics announces that his starting hurler will be either Bus Walker or Ralph Shippley, with Elwood McMackin to do the catching chores for the night.

Rough Competition
The Athletics have a score to settle with the Eagles. In the first game of the State Semi-Pro tournament at Jefferson City, the Eagles defeated the Sedalia aggregation 4 to 2, setting them down with only three hits. Tonight Sedalia will be out to avenge the loss, but will meet rough competition in doing so.

A season's record of 16 victories and only four defeats gives an indication of the power of the Capitol City team. The Athletics enter tonight's contest with a record nearly the same—14 wins and six losses. Both teams have done well in their first 20 games of the season.

Power Hitters
The Eagles carry some powerful hitters. Big Ramon Bagby, star first sacker, hit a home run in Jefferson City that cleared the left field fence at the 344 foot mark with plenty to spare, then went ahead and smashed two singles for a three for four record for the night. Donald Comper, a speedy fly hawk playing center field, had a double and single in four times at bat that game.

Good fielding is also a mark of the Eagles, and they played errorless ball in the Jefferson City contest. Mickey Brewer, a 20-year-old catcher, does a neat catching job.

A's Batting Averages
Here are some statistics, however, to show that the Athletics will be able to cope with the strong visiting nine. The following batting averages have been announced for these Sedalia players: Beismeyer, the leading hitter, is now batting .413, with Taylor at .406 above the charmed .400 mark with him.

Other averages: Jacobs, .391; G. Thompson, .365; Walker, .340; Wolf, .338; and McMackin, .279.

Auo Racing In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY—Many of the midjet auto racing fans here at Olympic stadium have the feeling that Offenhauser racers can go chase themselves as long as Bud Hemphill is around in his Ford-powered midjet.

The 26-year-old driver, who is competing in his third year of racing, showed nearly 6,000 fans last week end that he could win a 25-lap feature over 10 Offenhausers by a half-lap margin. It was the third feature victory of the season for the current point standing leader and one more will set a new record over the 1948 season. His chance will come up Sunday night in the regular program at Olympic stadium starting at 6 p. m.

Hemphill's Ford, originally Clay Smith's, has been built into one of the fastest race cars seen in this area for several seasons. He is a shop foreman for a Chevrolet-Oldsmobile concern in Pryor, Okla., and rebuilt the car to suit himself. Naturally he is confident that the right kind of a Ford can outclass an Offenhauser. A natural-born driver, Hemphill seldom takes a risk or endangers other competitors.

Indians Beat Toledo 3-1

By The Associated Press

Indianapolis, after breaking St. Paul's stronghold on the American Association lead, is off and running.

The Tribe expanded its top spot to 1½ games over the Apostles last night by shading last-place Toledo 3-1. The Indians scored all their runs in the opening round, cracking three doubles and a homer off Hal White.

Nanny Fernandez contributed a two-run circuit clout while little Dom Ballesandro, former Chicago Cub, doubled home the third tally in his first time at bat for the Tribe.

Milwaukee assisted Indianapolis' lead by whipping St. Paul 3-1 in 10 innings behind the 10-hit pitching of Norman Roy who went the route.

Kansas City Into 6th Place
Kansas City drove into sixth place with a double victory over Minneapolis. The Blues took the first 11-3 with a nine-run display in the fourth inning. They tallied four times in the seventh of the afterpiece for a 9-6 count. In all, Kansas City uncorked eight homers in the two games.

Louisville, slipped ½ game back of Kansas City and Columbus, kept in the battle for fifth place with a 3-2 win over the Redbirds. Columbus now rates a .465 percentage to .462 for Kansas City and .461 for Louisville.

Tonight's schedule:
Indianapolis at Toledo.
Louisville at Columbus.
Milwaukee at St. Paul.

Fort Smith Whipped Topeka 3-1 And 5-1

By The Associated Press

It must be discouraging to whack a full game off your handicap in a baseball pennant race and still find yourself seven and one half games behind the leader.

That's what happened last night to the Fort Smith Giants who whipped Topeka's Owls 3-1 and 5-1, yet remained well behind the leading St. Joseph Cardinals who had their game at Hutchinson postponed because of rain.

The Leavenworth-Salina game at Salina also was rained out.

In the only other game played last night Muskogee's Reds walloped three Joplin pitchers for 15 hits and a 14-4 victory. It increased the Reds' third place lead over Joplin to two full games.

Doubleheaders are scheduled for St. Joseph at Hutchinson for Leavenworth at Salina tonight. Joplin is at Muskogee and Topeka at Fort Smith.

Cards Now in Lead by a Game And Half

By The Associated Press

Let no man deny it, the St. Louis Cardinals are a warm ball club. They've beaten the Phillies. That means something because Philadelphia has been the one club the Cards couldn't handle. Until last night the Phils had defeated the Redbirds nine times in 15 games.

Just home from a trip that left Brooklyn in dreadful grief, the result of three straight Cardinal victories and one tie, Eddie Dyer's men set their bats for the long range last night and downed the Phillies 9 to 5.

Brecheen Allowed 2 Homers

After the third inning they never allowed any doubt about the issue, despite the fact that Harry Brecheen was less than sharp. Harry gave up nine hits, including two home runs.

That victory put the Birds a game and a half ahead of the Dodgers, who bowed to the Chicago Cubs yesterday 6 to 0. Brooklyn tries again at Chicago today, and the Cardinals meet the Phils again tonight at Sportsman's Park, with Big Red Mungler going against Hank Borowy.

Stan Musial, who really caught fire at Brooklyn, now has ten hits for his last 12 times at bat. Last night he and Enos Slaughter each got two doubles and a single. Red Schoendienst made four hits, including a double, and Glen Nelson singled twice and doubled.

Ex-Cardinal Dick Sisler put the Phils ahead 2 to 0 with a first-inning homer, but the Redbirds countered with four runs in the third, and from that point they had their way with four Philadelphia pitchers — Robin Roberts, Ken Trinkle, Curt Simmons and Charlie Bicknell.

People In 31 States Want Tickets

For the Cardinal — Brooklyn series starting Friday night, tickets have been requested by people in 31 states, as far away as Maine, and all the reserved seats have been sold.

The betting bookies, who don't often miss, now have the Cardinals 4-to-5 favorites to win the National League pennant. As late as Friday they favored the Dodgers at 9 to 10. Now, if you choose the Cards, you have to put up $5 to win $4.

In Philadelphia last night the Browns had a ball game won until the ninth inning, when the Athletics tied the score at 4-4, and then scored again in the tenth.

Schmitz Shuts Out Dodgers

CHICAGO, July 27—(P)—Johnny Schmitz, who specializes in beating Brooklyn, did it again yesterday with a seven-hit, 6-0, victory for the last place Chicago Cubs. It was the Dodgers' fourth straight loss, a new season high.

Three first-inning runs off Joe Hatten were more than enough for Schmitz who has pitched each of Chicago's three wins in 13 meetings with Brooklyn.

Coming on the heels of the disastrous St. Louis series, the loss was a severe blow to the Dodgers' pennant hopes at the start of their third western trip.

Sport Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 27—(P)—It was a double-barreled complaint against Bobby Locke that led to his being barred by the PGA, according to word relayed to this department. . . . The Inverness officials at Toledo didn't receive word from Bobby that he wasn't coming until July 14, a week before the tournament. By that time programs and other printed matter had Locke's name. . . . The Western Open encountered a similar situation. . . . and the players are burning because Locke asked Dutch Harrison to line up some exhibitions for the week preceding Inverness and Dutch hasn't had any direct word yet about cancelling them. Naturally those sponsors are unhappy, too. . . .

More "inside" news is that the Big Ten and National Collegiate A. A. offices, which have been combined for several years, will be split apart as soon as the NCAA finds the right man to handle its setup.

Strain on Credulity

Umpire Red Jones, who is working the "crooshial" Yankee-Indian series, gets a lot of chuckles by telling about Charlie Strain, who used to umpire with him in the Piedmont League. . . . Strain had a fine voice and was soloist at a Richmond, Va., church. . . . During a road tour of North Carolina, Charlie was invited to be guest singer at a local church. . . . The pastor announced: "Umpire Charlie Strain will sing hymn No. 270." Then looked surprised when a titter ran around the congregation. . . . Seems when folks opened their hymn books they saw the title: "Open Thine Eyes."

Shorts and Shells

The U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce has a field of kid golfers from 42 states and the District of Columbia for its National Junior Golf championship at Houston next week. . . . Clark Shaughnessy figures his L. A. Rams will have the fastest backfield in football this season. . . . Hope he's not handing out a line.

Red Sox Own Brightest Young Pitching Star in The League

By Joe Reichler
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

The biggest break the Boston Red Sox got this season was when Maurice "Call me Lefty" McDermott swallowed his pride and consented to return to the minors for more seasoning.

Because of that decision, the Red Sox today own the brightest young pitching star in the American league.

Last April, when Manager Joe McCarthy farmed him out to Louisville, the 20-year-old left-hander was so incensed that for a while, he was ready to return to his home in Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

"I was so mad then," the youngster was quoted as saying the other day, "that I was ready to blow my top. I guess, for once, I had some good sense. I thought it over and came to the conclusion that McCarthy was right."

Not long after McDermott set an American Association record by striking out 20 St. Paul players in a single game, Lefty was recalled by the Red Sox. That was on June 12. Since then he's made six starts and won four of them. His two defeats were by 1-0 and 5-4 scores.

Pitched Beauty Last Night

Young McDermott pitched another beauty last night as the Red Sox chopped up the Chicago White Sox, 11-2. In going the route for the fifth straight time, the lanky fireballer allowed six hits, walked six and struck out seven.

The Yankees and runner-up Cleveland Indians were idle.

The St. Louis Cardinals increased their National league lead to a game and a half over Brooklyn. The Redbirds walloping the Philadelphia Phils, 9-5, after the Chicago Cubs had shut out the Dodgers, 6-0.

Johnny Schmitz, an old Brooklyn nemesis, blanked the Dodgers with seven hits. It was the Brooks' fourth straight setback.

Sam Chapman's single with two out in the tenth inning scored Eddie Joost with the run that gave the Philadelphia Athletics a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

2,000th Hit of His Career

Wally Moses, veteran Philadelphia outfielder, singled in the fifth for the 2,000th hit of his major league career. He became the third active player to accomplish the feat, and the 86th in baseball history. Luke Appling of the White Sox and Dixie Walker of Pittsburgh are the other actives to hit 2,000.

The Detroit Tigers handed the Washington Senators their 11th successive defeat as young Ted Gray spun a five-hit 6-2 victory for the Bengals.

Dino Restelli backed Ernie Bonham's six-hit pitching with a two-run homer to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-1 triumph over the New York Giants.

The Cincinnati Reds knocked out Johnny Antonelli, Boston's $70,000 bonus pitcher, in the second inning and went on to whip the Braves, 6-3.

Invitations Sent to Three Leading Golfers

SPOKANE, Wash., July 27—(P)—Spokane's free-spending athletic round table says it has put up a $6,500 purse in an effort to lure Bobby Locke, Sam Snead and Carey Middlecoff here for a "world championship" golf match next month.

The round table said last night invitations have been sent to all three but that it has received no replies.

Locke, the British Open champion, has been banned from all tournaments sponsored in the United States by the Professional Golfers' association for allegedly failing to keep tournament commitments.

The round table said it got the idea for the tournament from a suggestion in a column by Whitney Martin of the Associated Press.

Bartlesville Won Twin Bill Over Carthage

By The Associated Press

Most interesting phase of the K-O-M baseball race at the moment is the battle for third place between Bartlesville and Carthage.

Bartlesville, which lost the third spot to Carthage a couple of days ago, won it back last night by whipping the Missourians in both ends of a double bill, 9-3 and 6-4, at Carthage. It put Bartlesville a game and a half ahead of Carthage.

The Pirates plastered the ball for fourteen hits in winning the seven inning game. They got seven doubles and three triples.

Bartlesville came from behind in the sixth inning to win the nightcap.

Dutch Housewife Battled The English Channel 14½ Hours

DOVER, England, July 27—(P)—The choppy waters of the English Channel have scored another victory.

A 31-year-old Dutch housewife, Mrs. Willy Croes Van Rijssel, who attempted to swim the channel yesterday, had to give up just a mile and a half from her goal.

The sturdy 175-pound wife of an Amsterdam commercial traveler battled the currents for 14½ hours before calling it quits.

NEIGHBORS KNUCKLE DOWN—After appealing repeatedly to the highway department to re-surface their street, the 21 families living on this St. Louis County, Mo., suburban street decided there was only one course of action. They would fix it themselves. They pooled the money and muscles necessary and dug in. Here, the men of the street, mostly young veterans, spread part of the 45 tons of rock they bought to fill in the gaping holes, which, they say, have broken auto springs and caused blowouts.

Vice President's Friend

Vice-President Alben Barkley flew to St. Louis, Mo., last Sunday for an almost unnoticed social call. He came to see Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley (above), a St. Louis widow he met recently in Washington. Her husband, who died in 1945, was general counsel for the Wabash railroad. The vice-president was on the way from Minneapolis to Washington when he dropped in. Guests at a luncheon for him said it was "supposed to be sort of a secret," but the secret wasn't kept. (AP Wirephoto)

Mrs. D. D. Davis. During the business meeting the members decided to dispense with the August meeting in favor of an ice cream supper for members and their families, to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Jr., south of Green Ridge, on Tuesday evening, August 16th. The members voted to make some more aluminum trays on Wednesday, August 10th. Some of the members chose a pen friend from a foreign country. Plans were made for a demonstration booth to be exhibited at the 4-H district meeting which will be held at the Green Ridge school building on Monday, July 25th.

Elmer the Bull, is Trapped 3 Weeks

SWOPE, Va., July 27—(AP)—Elmer the bull lost 600 pounds in 21 days—no bull.

Elmer got trapped in a railroad culvert pipe, where he'd gone to escape the heat. Rocks washed up behind him, blocking the way out, and there Elmer stood for three weeks, up to his shanks in water.

Railroad workers found him in the 36-inch pipe, a mere shadow of himself at an undernourished 300 pounds. Around his famished waist they wound a rope, hauled away, and out came Elmer.

Elmer's astonished owner readily identified him as the year-and-a-half old Angus which had disappeared from his farm July 1, where the workers pulled him out Thursday. Then he put Elmer on a build-up diet of milk, eggs, wheat bran, cornmeal, and other such delectables.

Elmer's doing fine, thank you. But his owner won't identify himself for publication.

"It's Elmer's story," he says.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 26—(P)—Miss Helen Weekly of Los Angeles has gone onto her home without Butch, her tiger-striped cat. But she is still advertising in hope some one found him. The cat was brought east on a vacation trip. By the time the party reached Springfield, Mo., Butch was suffering so visibly from the heat that the group stayed two days so the cat could have a cool room. At the edge of St. Joseph Butch jumped out of the car and disappeared. Miss Weekly said she is afraid the cat will starve, for his diet consists of green olives, strawberries, dates, raisins and avocado pears and his finders might not offer him such delicacies.

Wants Unions Under Federal Anti-Trust Law

Former New Deal Trustbuster Appears In Coal Hearing

WASHINGTON, July 27—(P)—Thurman Arnold, former "new deal" trust-buster, Tuesday urged Congress to bring labor unions under the federal anti-trust laws.

"It is a very dangerous thing," he said, "to permit unions to monopolize the labor supply without any curbs whatsoever."

Arnold testified as a witness before the Senate banking committee, which is investigating the coal industry and the tactics of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers union.

Hearing On 3-Day-Week

Senator Robertson (D-Va.) called for the inquiry as an outgrowth of a June 30 decree by Lewis setting a three-day work week for his miners in the coal fields. Robertson yesterday denounced the abbreviated week as "a bold, overt act" to fix prices and hold down production.

Arnold, chief of the justice department's anti-trust division during the late President Roosevelt's regime and now in private law practice in Washington, told the Senate committee that the three-day week was initiated to create a coal scarcity and thus place the miners' union in a favorable position for "the next strike."

Without a change in the present anti-trust laws, Arnold said, it would be easy for unions and management to get together and do "the very things which the anti-trust laws forbid."

Supreme Court Decision

He noted that the supreme court in several cases, has virtually exempted unions from the anti-trust laws.

Therefore, he said, it would be a simple matter to fix prices and restrict production—without violating anti-trust laws—by having the union "initiate" such a move and then the employers "give in."

Arnold told the Senators that if the coal operators wanted to raise their profits, they could do so by "being acquiescent" to such a scheme.

Major coal operators testified yesterday that Lewis' three-day week had been "imposed" upon them over their objections.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 27—(P)—Talk of a showdown with John L. Lewis over the three-day week for coal miners came last night from an operator source.

Harry M. Moses, negotiating spokesman for U. S. Steel and a veteran of coal contract talks, told reporters:

"The three-day week has made a messy situation from the standpoint of safety, costs and every progressive mining technique."

He made the statement in absence of the President of the United Mine Workers. Lewis remained in Washington—away from the resumption of contract talks recessed June 30.

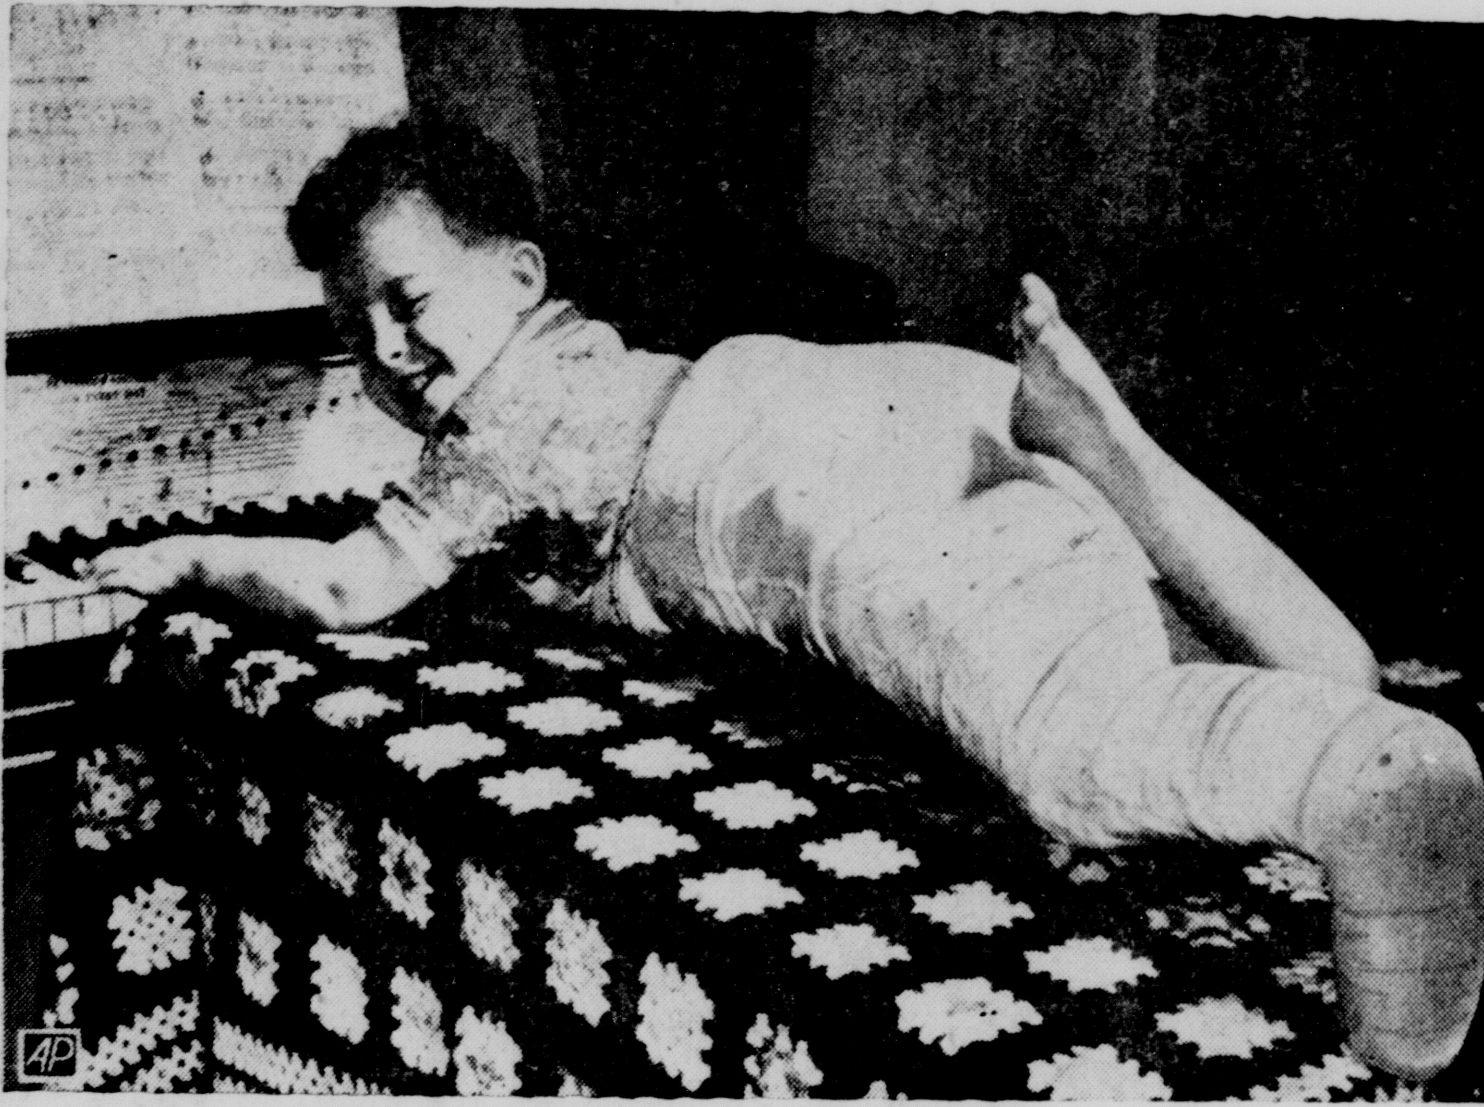

Lewis sent word he was "delayed." There was no further explanation.

75% Okinawa Buildings Damaged In Saturday's Typhoon

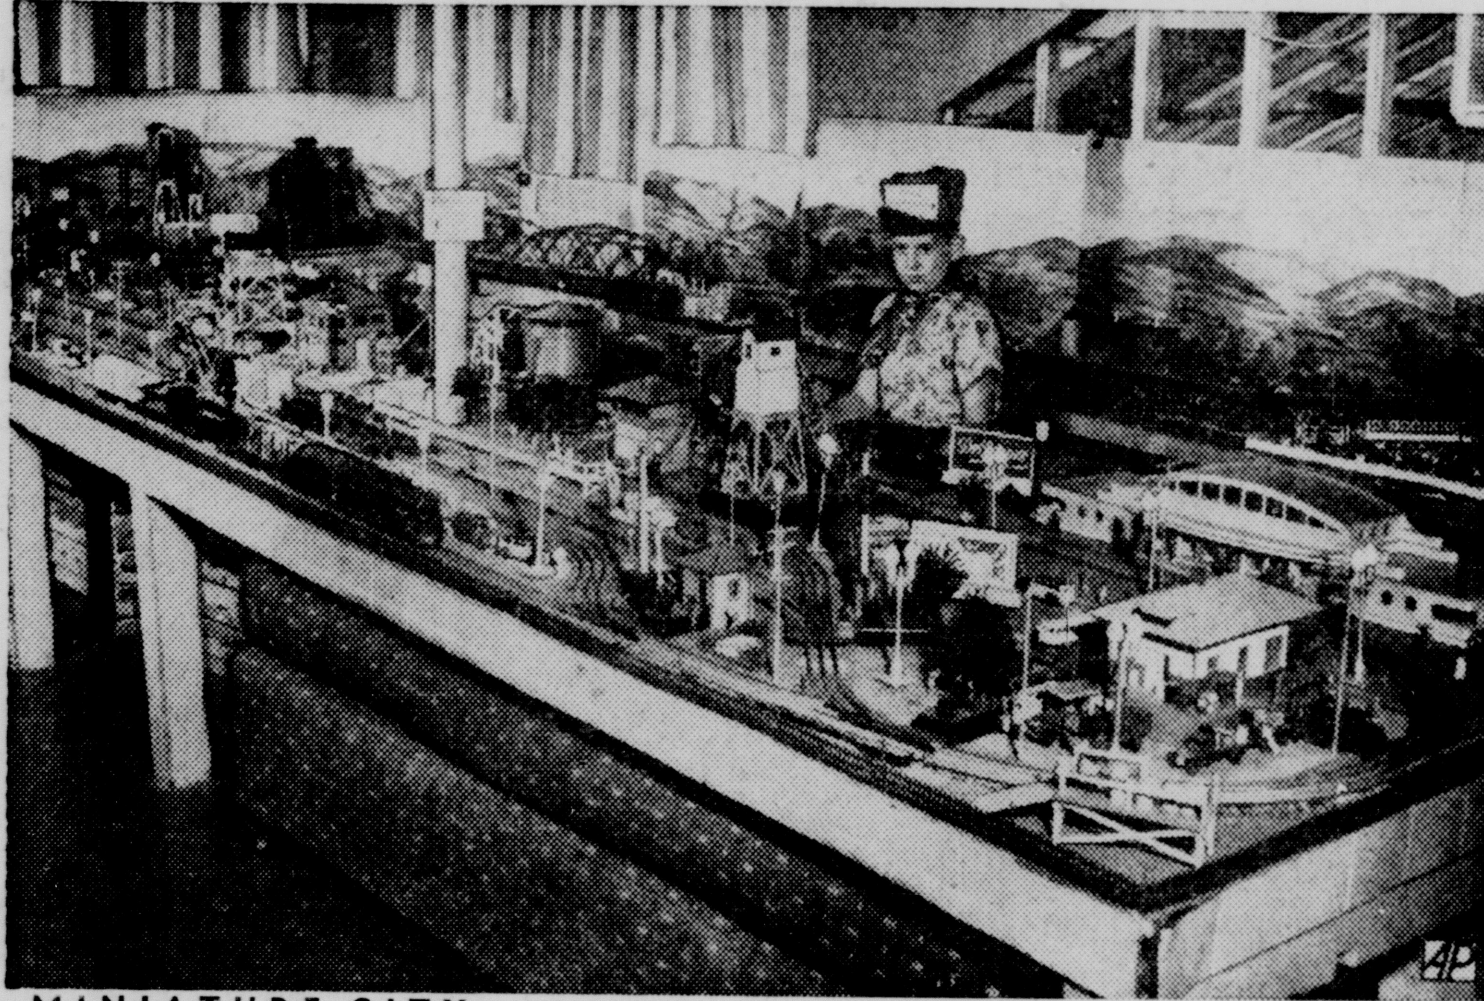

TOKYO, Wednesday, July 27—(P)—The Far East Air Force reported today 75 per cent of its buildings and installations on Okinawa were damaged by 150 mile an hour typhoon winds Saturday.

Damage to B-29s and other planes was held to a minimum, the Air Force said, by crews who stayed in the roped down, sand-bagged machines and kept noses of the aircraft pointed into the wind.

Decline in Net Steel Income

NEW YORK, July 27—(P)—Net incomes of United States Steel Corp., declined to $44,123,595 in the second quarter this year, the corporation reported on Tuesday. This compared with $49,928,670 for the first three months of 1949.

Directors of "Big Steel," meeting after the New York stock exchange closed, ordered a dividend of 50 cents a share on the corporation's new common stock. It was made payable Sept. 10 to shareholders of record Aug. 5.

On the old common shares, a dividend of $1.50 was declared three months ago. Since that time each holder has received two additional shares for each share held, to effect a three-for-one split of the stock.

U. S. Steel's second-quarter net income is equal to $1.45 a share on the more than 26,000,000 common shares now outstanding. On the same basis, the net for the preceding three months was equal to $1.67 a share.

Upholds Law on After Hours Sale

JEFFERSON CITY, July 27—(P)—A bartender who sells liquor at 3:50 a. m. can be prosecuted for violating state liquor laws, Attorney General J. E. Taylor ruled Tuesday.

The opinion was written by assistant attorney general Aubrey R. Hammett, Jr., for Jasper R. Vettori, associate prosecuting attorney in the city of St. Louis. Vettori cited a case where the holder of a tavern license was in the hospital and knew nothing of the out-of-hours sale. But Hammett concluded the liquor laws are broad enough to cover illegal activity of a bartender as well as the tavern owner.

Call For Holding To Action

Secretary Acheson Makes it on The Foreign Aid Bill To Congress

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—The Senate sent the whole $5,723,000,000 foreign aid bill back to its appropriations committee today.

The decision was made in the process of unwinding a parliamentary snarl over an amendment which would have forced the economic cooperation administration to buy $1,500,000,000 in surplus American farm commodities.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson appealed to a balky Congress today to suspend judgement on the $1,450,000,000 foreign arms aid bill until all the evidence is in.

Acheson told a news conference that points raised on the program by several members of Congress are sound in theory but that they talked in a misapprehension of the facts.

Evidently referring to the suggestion of Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) that only an interim plan should be adopted now, Acheson said it is a good idea to have an interim program.

But he declared that is exactly what the administration has proposed.

To committee Thursday

The evidence of which Acheson spoke will be presented to Congress beginning with his appearance before the House Foreign Affairs committee tomorrow.

Discussing that appearance, the secretary refused to answer directly a reporter's inquiry as to whether the United States government has information "that the Russians are actively preparing for war."

Acheson said that was what he called one of those loaded numbers.

If he replied yes, the reporters would make a lot out of that, he said, if he replied no, they would make a lot out of that; so his decision was to make no comment at all in direct response.

He did say that all the information the department has on the Russian situation will be placed at the disposal of Congress. But he declared emphatically that it will not contain any hush-hush or frightening stuff.

Acheson said he has seen stories to the effect that State Department has some secret information or great secret report which it plans to use in support of the arms proposal.

He declared that is not the case at all; rather he said administration officials have collected all the pertinent information bearing on the question of assistance to other free nations and all this information will be presented to Congress.

A reporter then asked Acheson "Is it not a fact that the department has information pertaining to Russia's armed forces which is not at this time public property or has never been disclosed?"

Acheson said he certainly hopes that is the case and that of course it is. He added laughing that this government also has information about Britain, French and other national armed forces which has never been made public.

No Direct Response

Another reporter asked:

"Do we have information now that the Russians are actively preparing for war?"

Acheson declined to give a direct response.

Acheson's appearance before the House Foreign Affairs committee tomorrow will be in support of President Truman's call for what he described as "urgently needed" weapons for Atlantic pact signers.

Reception of this proposal there appeared likely to be somewhat less hostile than by the combined membership of the Senate's Foreign Relations and Armed Services committees.

Early checks indicated a substantial majority of that group of 26 Senators will oppose the $1,450,000,000 program. Most of them apparently will insist upon much less expensive, stop-gap weapons until the projected North Atlantic council can set up a committee map over-all defense of non-Communist areas in Europe.

Senators Byrd (D-Va.) and Bridges (R-N.H.) joined the rank of those opposing the President's proposal. Both are members of the armed services committee and both voted for ratification of the Atlantic pact.

Representatives' Vote On Poll Tax

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—Following is the vote by representatives from Missouri and Kansas on the anti-poll tax bill which passed the House Tuesday.

Missouri:
Democrats for — Bolling, Cannon, Carnahan, Christopher, Irving, Jones, Karst, Karsten, Moulder, Sullivan, Welch.

Democrat against—Magee.
Republican against—Short.

Kansas:
Republicans for — Cole, Hope, Meyer, Rees, Schivner.

Republican against—Smith.

High Military Command to Fly to Europe

To Discuss Pact With Leaders of Its Signatories

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—The United States military high command will fly to Europe Friday to discuss the arms aid program with the military chiefs of the Atlantic pact nations.

The national military establishment, announcing this today, said the commanders of the army, navy and air force, "will discuss matters of mutual interest, including the proposed military organization under the North Atlantic pact, with the military chiefs of European signatory nations of the pact and will acquaint themselves with current conditions in Europe."

They will also "gain first hand information on the status of United States forces" in Europe, the announcement said.

The three military leaders—Army General Omar Bradley, Admiral Louis Denfeld, and Air Force General Hoyt S. Vandenberg—make up the joint chiefs of staff.

Maj. Gen. A. M. Gruenther, director of the joint staff which is a working agency of the joint chiefs, will accompany the commanders.

They will appear before congressional committees considering the military assistance program on Friday before taking off.

They will visit Frankfurt, London, Paris and Vienna before returning in about ten days.

Not Visit All Signatories

"Limitation of time prevents a visit to each European signatory nation of the North Atlantic pact, the NME said. "However, it is hoped that talks can be arranged with military representatives for North Atlantic pact member nations at any place covered in the itinerary convenient to them.

"A representative of the joint chiefs of staff has already begun informal talks with a representative of the Canadian chiefs of staff on the question of military organization under the North Atlantic pact."

Although the chiefs have made inspection trips abroad individually, this will be their first such trip as a group.

However, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will not go to Europe with the group.

Eisenhower has been serving as temporary chairman of the joint chiefs group, but returned to his Columbia university presidency post last spring and now comes to Washington only for occasional conferences.

Hospital Has 12 Polio Patients

COLUMBIA, Mo., July 27.—(AP)—Darleen Schell, 13, of Huntsville was admitted to the University of Missouri Hospitals here late yesterday as a polio patient, and another patient, Lou Anna Byerley of Souder, was transferred from the polio ward to the crippled children's clinic.

The Byerley child, second polio patient to be admitted to the hospitals in the current outbreak of the disease, has recovered from the contagious phase, and was transferred to the clinic for recuperation.

Yesterday's admission and today's transfer left the polio case load at the hospital still at 12.

The Schell child was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. John Schell, a graduate nurse. Mrs. Schell will serve as a special nurse for her daughter while the need continues, and then will join the hospital staff as a general duty nurse for the duration of the epidemic.

Minnesota State Senator Drowns

FORT FRANCES, Ont., July 27.—(AP)—C. A. Dahle, Minnesota state senator, drowned yesterday near this northwestern Ontario town.

The similarity of names led to diffusion of a report that former U. S. Senator Joseph H. Ball of Minnesota was the drowning victim. Ball, however, was at his summer home at Afton, Minn.

Mayor Bagby Speaks to Lions on The 'State of City'

Speaking before one of the largest attended meetings of the Lions club in several weeks, Mayor Julian H. Bagby gave a talk "State of the City", in which he reviewed the administrative activities over the past three years.

Mayor Bagby gave practically the same report as he made before other civic clubs in the past few weeks. However, he called attention to various projects the city had in mind at the time of the other talks and said today some had been completed and others were well on their way to completion.

One in mind is the redecorating and repairing of the outside of the City hall. Work was resumed on this today after several days delay and should be complete by August 21, the opening day of the Missouri State Fair. He also called attention all the street sign markers have been installed, and repairs on the incinerator have been completed.

Lighting Improvements
In his talk he made reference to the Street Light improvements after which Noel T. Tweet of the Missouri Public Service Co., told of improvements have not been completed as yet but work was progressing.

Mayor Bagby in his talk stated he felt the civic organizations should report from time to time

regardless who is Mayor of the City.
Mr. Tweet, program chairman, introduced the speaker.
The Lions club board of directors voted to investigate spraying of the City of Sedalia as a health measure, and will seek the cooperation of all civic clubs of the city as well as the citizens as individuals.

It was pointed out the spray is not to be done as a polio preventative but strictly as a health measure.

District Convention
Announcement of the District 26-C convention to be held at Brookfield, on Sunday, July 31, was made. Sedalia will seek to have a Deputy District Governor elected.

Guests today were Capt. Russell Peck of Wichita Falls, Tex., of the club, Stanton Hudson of C. W. Stephenson, James Hesserick, St. Louis of George James.

Virgil Herrick gave a brief report on the activities of various committees working on the Lions Club Air Show to be held at the Sedalia Municipal Airport on Sunday, August 14.

The Lions Club voted a plaque to be presented to the Pettis County 4-H club which is winner of the Livestock show to be held at the Missouri Pacific Stockyards on August 19.

A. W. Haller, president, presided over the meeting.

Bill Signing Day For Smith

Among Them an Extension as to Age Assistance

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 27.—(AP)—A new bridge over the Mississippi river near Caruthersville, Mo., came a step nearer reality today.

Gov. Forrest Smith said he would sign during the day two bills setting up the machinery for a Missouri-Tennessee commission to issue revenue bonds and build the bridge. When paid for by tolls, the bridge would become free.

As a starter Smith appointed M. R. Rowland, S. P. Reynolds and Neil W. Helm, all of Caruthersville, to sign the proposed interstate compact with a similar group from Tennessee. When the compact is approved by Congress and in effect, five bridge commissioners from each state will be appointed.

A ferry now links the two states at Caruthersville.

Extend Qualifications
Also to be signed today is a bill extending for two more years the present property qualifications for old age assistance—allowing a single person to own property worth $2,500 and a married couple property worth $3,000.

Under a new feature if a couple owned property between $2,500 and $3,000 and one of them died, the surviving spouse could still get assistance. Income from odd jobs also would be exempt in figuring eligibility.

Other bills to be signed would: Clear the way for establishing a metropolitan water district to serve communities in eastern Jackson county.

Let the city of Independence take over water district mains in recently annexed territory.

Make the City of St. Louis teachers' retirement system conform with the state system.

Increase salaries in the St. Louis circuit attorney's office.

Dollar Crisis Puts a Crimp In Britain

Request to U. S. For More Aid is Like Bombshell

By Harvey Hudson

PARIS, July 27.—(AP)—Britain's critical dollar shortage has exploded into an economic crisis for all the Marshall plan countries. The unexpected British request for $624,000,000 more American aid than had been tentatively allotted to her, broke like a bombshell among the other countries.

This was especially true since the others had become resigned to a slash in available funds.

Leaders of the Democratic party in the United States Congress agreed yesterday to an appropriation of about 16 per cent below what the European countries had hoped to receive.

One French official said yesterday the British request "could break the Marshall plan wide open."

The British request was transmitted Saturday in a secret note to the organization for European economic cooperation (OEEC). This is the organization which splits up the Marshall plan funds.

Contents of the note leaked out to the press yesterday.

Threat to Living Standards

The British said revised calculations showed the sterling area would have a dollar deficit of $1,547,000,000 for the year starting July 1. It implied that Britain would need that much dollar aid or would have to cut its imports and undergo a drop in living standards.

For 1948-1949 Britain received $1,239,000,000 when the requests originally were submitted for 1949-50 Britain estimated she would need $1,114,000,000. She pointed out that this was a ten per cent cut from the previous year.

The American economic cooperation administration, in a general scaling down of all requests reduced Britain's share to $923,000,000. This amount was based on an American appropriation of $4,566,000,000.

Congress has trimmed the amount still further and prospects are for an appropriation of less than $4,000,000,000.

If Britain's newly proposed request were granted it would mean then that she would be getting about 40 per cent of American aid.

It also would mean other European countries would have to give up dollars to help Britain.

The crisis arises because all decisions of the OEEC must be unanimous. If Britain should hold out for a bigger share in the face of the greatly reduced number of dollars, she might wreck all hope of real cooperation.

Bond Issue Loses At Springfield

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., July 27.—(AP)—A proposed $6,500,000 bond issue to build a new city power plant lost in a special election Tuesday, 3,859 to 4,004.

The city's registered voting strength is 36,501. A four-sevenths majority was required to approve the bonds.

After the votes were counted, M. D. Lightfoot, produce broker who spearheaded opposition to the bonds, said he would call a mass meeting and demand:

1. That the city contract for an additional 20,000 kilowatts of power from the Southwest Power administration, expected to come from the Bull Shoals dam. The city already has arranged for 10,000 kilowatts.

2. An immediate 20 per cent reduction in utility rates.

3. Resignation of the entire city utilities board.

The Chamber of Commerce and organized labor supported the bond issue.

New Effort On Education Federal Aid

General View no Action be Reached For This Year

By Barney Livingstone

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—A new move started in Congress today to rescue federal aid to education from the religious controversy now surrounding it.

Rep. Morton (R-Ky) disclosed he is drafting a bill based on the principle of state need. It would omit restrictions on parochial school assistance which have been denounced by Roman Catholic churchmen.

The extent to which Morton's proposal might take Congress off the spot was not immediately apparent. The general view is that nothing will be done this year.

He disclosed his intentions after sitting in on a closed-door Republican session headed by House GOP leader Martin of Massachusetts. Martin had no comment at all, but Morton later told reporters those present did not object to his idea.

Based On State Needs

Morton's plan to base federal aid according to state needs follows the idea expressed last June by Former President Herbert Hoover.

Hoover, in a letter to Rep. McConnell (R-Pa), recommended at that time that federal funds should be made available only to states which need them, and then based on specific standards of education.

He denounced as "a pork-barrel appendage" formulas which would allow $5 per pupil per year in federal funds to every state, whether needed or not.

This proviso is included in both the Senate-passed bill, and the Catholic-attacked measure introduced in the House by Rep. Barden (D-NC)—both of which are now stalemated in the House Labor committee.

Morton's bill would maintain a hands-off attitude on the uses to which the states would put the money, as does the Senate bill. Expenditures of aid funds would be governed entirely by state school laws.

Morton gave no figure on the amount of aid he contemplates. The Senate and Barden bills authorize $300,000,000 a year to the states, to be apportioned according to formulas based on the number of school-age children.

Already touchy over the school-aid fight, some members of Congress viewed the Hoover position as ground for new controversy instead of less.

Increase Pressure

Public pressure continued to amount, meanwhile, from both sides in the bitter dispute touched off by Francis Cardinal Spellman's denunciation of the Barden bill as "anti-Catholic" and his subsequent exchange with Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt over what he called her "anti-Catholic bias."

French Assembly Approval

Sanction by Two More Houses Put Into Full Accord

By the Associated Press

The North Atlantic treaty was approved today by the French national assembly the pact now needs only the approval of the French and Dutch upper houses of parliament before it goes into effect.

The French assembly approval was by a vote of 398 to 187. It came after an all-night session marked by heated debate which at one point boiled over into fist-fighting between Communists and Rightists.

The treaty provides that it will come into force as soon as the ratifications of the majority of the signatories, including Belgium, Canada, France, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Britain, and the United States are deposited. This means that only final action by the French and Dutch upper houses is awaited.

The British financial crisis has touched off a crisis in all Marshall Plan countries. Britain has requested an additional $624,000,000 to meet her emergency needs. A French spokesman said the British request "could break the Marshall Plan wide open."

An American economist in Paris said the other western European nations "will never stand for" the British request. The other participating nations had become resigned to a slash in American recovery aid.

Support Recovery Fund

In Washington Democratic party leaders said they would support a recovery fund of about 16 per cent below what the European countries had hoped to receive.

The Chinese Communist war machine rolled further into Hunan province today. Nationalist government spokesmen estimated the Communists have plunged 500,000 men into the renewed fighting.

Reports from Communist-held Nanking said the Communist high command has ordered capture of Canton before August 15. Martial law has been proclaimed in Canton. Observers said the Communists are holding up the formation of a new national government until after the capture of Canton. It is expected to fall like a ripe plum when the Communists overrun Hunan.

The Communist government in predominantly Catholic Poland today forbade a Roman Catholic priests to excommunicate any Pole belonging to the Communist party. The government said the papal decree threatening excommunication of Communist supporters is an "act of aggression" against the state.

At the same time the Polish government announced acceptance of a church proposal to negotiate a church-state agreement. It looked like a victory of the government which had insisted the hierarchy stop its "anti-state" activities before the government would negotiate.

Warn Americans Staying in China

WASHINGTON, July 27.—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said today that Americans remaining in China face the danger of being treated as hostages by the Communists.

He told a news conference that Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart, in preparing to return to the United States for consultations, has run into numerous difficulties put in his way by Communist authorities at Nanking.

Acheson also said the state department has been advised that Randall Gould, editor of the American-owned Shanghai Evening Post and Mercury, has been held since noon yesterday (Shanghai time) without food, water or sleep by newspaper plant workers as the result of a labor dispute.

This instance was used by the secretary in a general discussion of the China situation, which he said reinforced repeated U. S. official pleas that American citizens leave that country if possible.

Latest state department records list 5,023 Americans still in China. Of these 1,140 are in the British crown colony of Hong Kong.

The largest group is in Communist-held Shanghai and is estimated at 1,580.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round Cardinal Spellman's Position May Break Catholic-Jewish Political Alliance in Big Eastern Cities

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, July 27 — One partial by-product of Cardinal Spellman's attack on Mrs. Roosevelt is a new political alignment which may reshape the politics of the entire nation. It may spell the difference between the election of a Democratic and Republican president in 1952, and a Republican and Democratic Congress in 1950.

To understand what is happening, you have to remember that for the past two decades there has been a close political alliance between Catholics and Jews in New York City, and in many other big industrial cities, such as Boston and Philadelphia.

The combination of Catholics and Jews in New York consistently carried the state for Roosevelt, and for Al Smith before him. It was an almost unbeatable combination.

However, Democratic political leaders are now privately and mournfully predicting that the alliance is almost certain to fall apart. They base this upon two factors:

One, is the much publicized attack on Mrs. Roosevelt by Cardinal Spellman, which has focused nation-wide attention on religious issues.

Two, is the much less publicized opposition of Cardinal Spellman to ex-Governor Herbert Lehman, who had hoped to be the first Jew in history to be elected to the United States senate.

Cardinal Opposes Lehman

Lehman, who served as governor of New York longer than any other man, was considered a sure winner for the senate seat of ex-Senator Bob Wagner. As governor, he had received the support of all religious groups. However, the cardinal and Lehman got into an argument last year over the banning of The Nation, a magazine, from New York public school libraries because The Nation had published a series of articles by Paul Blanchard critical of the Catholic church.

Lehman took the position at that time that, since the New York public schools are attended by Protestants and Jews as well as Catholics, their reading material should not be fixed by Catholics alone. Lehman felt that the Catholic church had every right to set the reading material in its own parochial schools, but not in public schools which are supported by the taxpayers.

Cardinal Spellman, however, vigorously disagreed with Lehman and wrote him a sharp personal letter.

Now that Lehman is available for the Senate, he has received word from Catholic leaders that, because of his stand on the censorship of The Nation, he would have definite church opposition. Naturally this would make it difficult, if not impossible, for him to win. This has been the chief reason why the ex-governor has delayed in announcing his candidacy.

This Catholic opposition to Lehman, coupled with the Cardinal's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt, who has always had strong Jewish support, is why Democratic leaders are so worried over continuation of the Jewish-Catholic political alliance in the big eastern cities.

FDR, Jr., Talked With Cardinal

In the light of Cardinal Spellman's criticism of Mrs. Roosevelt, it is interesting to recall a conference which took place between the cardinal and her son before young Franklin ran for Congress last spring.

FDR, Jr., called on the cardinal in order to inform him that his wife was planning to sue for divorce. Young Franklin is an Episcopalian but he called on the Catholic prelate because of the fact that about 25 per cent of the voters in the 20th New York district are Catholic and he wanted their support in his congressional race.

Roosevelt made it clear that he did not want the divorce, but that his wife, the former Ethel du Pont, insisted on it. Cardinal Spellman deplored the divorce, but advised that if Mrs. Roosevelt, Jr., demanded it, then FDR, Jr., should refrain from marrying again.

The cardinal took no part in Roosevelt's subsequent congressional race, which he won by a substantial majority.

Note — About 60 per cent of the voters in Roosevelt's district are Jewish, with 25 per cent Catholic. He drew support from both groups.

McCarran's Personal Immigrants

Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada, whose name means "keep out" to Europe's homeless refugees, actually begged the Senate the other day to admit 250 more people into this country.

It turned out, however, that he only wanted sheepherders to tend flocks in the west. McCarran wanted to import them, not from displaced persons camps, but from the Pyrenees mountains along the Franco-Spanish border.

This was a curious request coming from McCarran who, alone, stands in the way of 400,000 displaced persons (including 5,000 sheep herders) who wish to start a new life in the United States. As chairman of the Senate judiciary committee, he has been able to block a bill rectifying the 80th Congress' D.P.

act which discriminates against Jews and Catholics.

Thus, Senators were a little baffled at the spectacle of the gentleman from Nevada pleading to raise the immigration bars. In fact, he almost got down on his knees.

"There is no more important bill on the calendar than this one," begged McCarran. Fortunately, he described the plight of the west's neglected sheep and the need for sheep herders from abroad.

But Sen. Robert Hendrickson, New Jersey Republican, gave McCarran a taste of his own medicine.

"As I understand," remarked Hendrickson slyly, "there are in some of the displaced persons camps over 5,000 sheep herders."

He blocked the bill.

Elmer Bets With Power Lobby

The private power lobby took Senator Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma Democrat, out to the race track to celebrate after he put across their big victory over public power in the secrecy of the Senate appropriations committee.

Thomas led the fight behind closed doors to cut off funds for transmission lines, to carry power from government built dams to the public, leaving it to the private electric companies to distribute government power — with higher rates to consumers and bigger profits to the companies.

So, the day after Thomas won this fight, he was treated to a royal evening at the Laurel, Md., race track. His hosts were ex-governor W. J. Holloway, $75-a-day lobbyist for Oklahoma Gas and Electric, and Richard K. Lane, president of the Public Service Company of Oklahoma — the same lobbyists who have been dictating Thomas' vote on public power.

The party bet generously on the harness races, but the senator lost money — proving that he isn't as good at speculating on horses as on the commodity market. His wife, however, cleaned up.

FDR, Jr., Gets Most Unusual Mail Mrs. Mesta is Going Third-class

By Peter Edson

WASHINGTON, July 27 — New York congressman Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., can lay claim to the most unusual batch of mail received by any legislator on Capitol Hill. While it's usual for congressmen to be swamped by appeals to vote for this or that bill, young Roosevelt has been swamped by offers of marriage. The deluge began right after his divorce by Ethel duPont and it hasn't let up.

Luxembourg Gets a Rating

President Truman has designated the newly established American legation at Luxembourg as only a "class three" establishment. That means Mrs. Perle Mesta, the new minister, will get a $17,500 salary. Class one ambassadors get $25,000, class two gets $20,000.

Who's Gonna Pay The Bills

Add to the mystery over President's Truman's secret conference on British participation in atomic bomb production this further question: Who will pay the bills? With the British government in admitted financial straits, it is difficult to see where the money can be raised to duplicate the billion-dollar Oak Ridge, Hanford or Los Alamos plants, and to buy the uranium ore for processing.

Via Government Taxi

Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, chief of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, is in the dog house again for sending government staff cars on long drives just to give him fancy taxi service befitting his rank when he steps off his plane. Recently the general inspected a new dam at Oneonta, N. Y. He flew to the site with his staff in a special DC-3 transport. The party was met on arrival by three staff cars. They had been driven overland from Baltimore, Md. — roughly 200 miles. They carried the inspection party from the airport to the dam site, then back to the airport where the general boarded his plane for the return flight. The three Army staff cars were then driven back to Baltimore empty. Aneonta taxi company said it would have been glad to furnish this service for $10. Two years ago, when he was still district engineer in the Missouri Valley, the then Col. Pick was similarly criticized for sending staff cars on long trips to meet him at airports.

The Best "Europeans"

Dr. Gunnar Myrdal of Sweden, secretary of the United Nations Economic Committee for Europe, was in Washington recently for his annual visit. Discussing European recovery before a World Affairs Center meeting, Myrdal told about the difficulty in promoting trade between European countries because of their intense nationalism. Then he declared, "Really the best 'Europeans' in Europe today are the Americans administering the Marshall Plan."

U. S. is Still at War

Trying to figure the motives of congressmen opposed to European recovery, the North Atlantic Pact and the military assistance program has been difficult for officials in charge of those programs. Sincere advocates of economy, who believe that the United States can't afford to contribute all this foreign aid, are hard to answer. The isolationists who hold that the United States can exist without any international cooperation whatsoever, just can't be talked to because they won't listen to any reasoning. Best argument presented against both these groups thus far is that the United States is still at war—the cold war. If the United States loses this cold war, it may become involved in a hot one. The cost of a shooting war will be vastly greater than any cold war. Whether or not the United States wins this cold war is said to be entirely dependent on the strength of economic and military forces built up in western Europe in the next few years.

Now It Will Be Told

Big riddle of the thick "Chinese White Paper" which State Department will release next week is the contents of Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer's secret report on China. There are two theories on what the Wedemeyer report will reveal. One is that it recommended a direct military assistance program to help Chiang Kai-shek fight the Communists. The other is that the report was so critical of the Chiang government that it had to be suppressed to avoid giving the appearance of pulling the American rug out from under the Chinese feet.

All Babies Do Not Develop Wetting Control at Same Time

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

In small babies the process of emptying the bladder is automatic. As soon as the bladder is stretched to a certain point, the nerves carry the message to the spinal cord and the bladder is automatically emptied.

Rather gradually the sensation of a full bladder begins to be carried up to the brain itself and when this develops it is possible for the child to control wetting. Until the message is received in the brain, however, it is useless to expect a baby to have control over his bladder functions.

Bladder control comes slowly and parents should not be concerned if their hopeful does not develop complete control as soon as some other child they know about.

May Be a Cause

Sometimes a child wets during the day or night at 3 or 4 years old, or even beyond. Usually this is a sign of either rebellion on the part of the child or a feeling of insecurity. Sometimes such children have had the importance of keeping dry overemphasized to them and take a childish delight in frustrating their parents.

When this is the reason the parents ought to pay less attention to the whole thing and to show no signs of annoying or any other emotion when it occurs. This is often enough to solve the problem.

A healthy baby usually begins to establish bowel control between 1 and 2 years old. When the baby is 9 or 10 months old it can be placed for short periods on the "potty." Most infants begin to catch on to the idea quickly, especially if praise is given for good results.

The "potty" should be used regularly at the same time of day, usually after the first morning meal. Neither the mother nor the baby should be worn out by keeping it up too long if success is not achieved.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Couples Lose Out by Spending All Vacations Visiting Parents

Do young couples owe it to their parents to spend their vacation time each year visiting first one set of parents and then the other?

That's what a wife asks me who says she and her husband have done that for the past five summers.

She writes: "I think my husband and I both need a different sort of vacation this year. If we could just go off to some place we've never seen and have the refreshing experience of seeing new sights and doing new things."

"But we both know that if we write our folks that we aren't going to spend our vacation with them they'll be disappointed and hurt."

They shouldn't be. And if they are, perhaps you should be strong enough to go ahead and take the kind of vacation you want anyhow.

A man and his wife owe it to themselves and to their marriage to do something new and exciting and different once in a while. And vacation time is the ready-made time for having some new experiences.

Will Benefit From "Getting Away"

It's good for a husband and wife once in a while to get away from family and friends and share some new experiences that are theirs alone.

Your parents should understand this, but if they don't perhaps you can explain to your parents and your husband can explain to his why it is that you are planning a different sort of vacation this year.

Now and then someone (usually a man) comes out with the statement that husbands and wives should take separate vacations.

But what most couples need now and then is not a vacation from each other, but a vacation together from the "dailyness" of their existence.

You and your husband are forfeiting that experience of year after year you spend your whole vacation time visiting your parents. (All rights reserved, NEA Service, Inc.)

THE STORY: Mrs. Malone, a widow, is the cook for a strange, wealthy, arrogant woman who is fleeing in a gigantic trailer to a mysterious destination. With her is the Marchese Dellacasa, who speaks with an accent. The other servants include Victor, a Filipino houseboy who graduated from Columbia, and Rudy, the uniformed chauffeur who may once have been a movie actor. Rudy and Victor tell Mrs. Malone that Mrs. Everson, after the death of her wealthy husband, heard a lot of talk about the Atom Bomb and eventually became convinced that an atom war was impending. She is, in fact, running away from the Bomb. Mrs. Malone says that she is convinced that the whole country soon will be blasted. "If there's any surviving done, Mrs. Everson will do it," he adds. "How?" asks Mrs. Malone.

VII
A LOOK of what might have been embarrassment crossed Rudy's face, and he shifted uneasily as he answered Mrs. Malone.

"Well, she claims to know a safety zone . . . a spot protected, somehow, from the effects of radiation. Great guns! Don't ask me to explain it. I'm no Einstein!"

"She gave me a lot of gabble about 'the hydrogen chain.' But all I really know is that about six months ago she got what she thought was the real dope, and then made her plans. First of all, she bought and equipped this outfit. I'd hate to think what it cost. Then she sold all of her property. Nobody, not even her lawyers, knew why. A rich woman's whim, they thought."

"Then a month ago, she put it up to me and Victor. It was like Noah with the animals: join up, or else."

"When it's over," she told us, "only a handful of human beings will be left alive. I intend to be one of them."

Mrs. Malone sat rigid and erect, her eyes fixed on Rudy's face. The sudden silence was somehow terrifying . . . a tangible pressure against the eardrums. She struggled against it, and against the rising tide of panic within her. She must be sensible.

"If the scientists really know it's going to happen," she reasoned, "they'll say so, won't they? They'll give us plenty of warning."

"Can you imagine the riot if they did? I don't think so."

"Then you really believe . . ."

Mrs. Malone began.

Rudy shrugged.

"I'm here. Victor's here."

His eyes flickered in the peculiar way they had.

"And the pay," he added, "is excellent."

Again that silence, while nobody moved.

"Where is it we're going?"

"Don't ask me! Mrs. Everson's got the maps. I gather she has some idea of discouraging pursuit."

RUDY glanced around the narrow room in which they sat.

"As you said yourself, she's bringing civilization with her. It's all here, on wheels. Money. Liquor. Cigarettes. Matches. Electricity. Gas. Books. Caviar. Ice. Canned goods, including music—everything from Bach to Ellington. Jewels. Medicine. Ourselves, to wait on her. And a companion."

"Oh, him."

"Yes, him."

Rudy smiled, the flashing, incidental smile that stirred so strangely in her memory. But his eyes held a certain disdain.

"He's a little easier to explain," he said ironically. "During all those years of waiting Mrs. Everson thought about the gay world of fashion, but she didn't belong

Denial of Any Bias in Reply To Cardinal

Mrs. Roosevelt in Disavowal of Affront to Church

HYDE PARK, N. Y., July 27—(P)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, denying any "bias against the Roman Catholic church," said today she would "continue to stand for the things in our government which I think are right."

She made the statements in a letter to Francis Cardinal Spellman who assailed her last Friday in a letter for a "record of anti-Catholicism x x x unworthy of an American mother."

"I assure you," wrote Mrs. Roosevelt, "that I have no sense of being an 'unworthy American mother.' The final judgment, my dear Cardinal Spellman, of the worthiness of all human beings is in the hands of God."

The controversy stemmed from Mrs. Roosevelt's opposition to federal aid to parochial schools. Cardinal Spellman said Mrs. Roosevelt aligned herself with backers of the Barden bill in her June 23 column and two others. The Barden bill would permit federal aid only to public schools. Mrs. Roosevelt mentioned Cardinal Spellman's opposition to the Barden bill in her column.

No Reply at Present

In New York, a secretary to the cardinal said there was no immediate reply. In his letter of last Friday the cardinal said "I shall not again publicly acknowledge you."

Mrs. Roosevelt wrote the cardinal: "I have no intention of attacking you personally, nor of attacking the Roman Catholic church, but I shall, of course, continue to stand for the things in our government which I think are right. 'They may lead me to be in opposition to you and to other groups within our country, but I shall always act, as far as I am able, from real conviction and from honest belief.'"

In her reply today Mrs. Roosevelt declared, "I have never advocated the Barden bill nor any other specific bill on education now before the Congress. I believe, however, in federal aid to education."

The Barden bill is a substitute for a measure already passed by the Senate which would allow the states to use the federal funds for parochial and private schools if they so desired.

The Cardinal's attack on Mrs. Roosevelt brought her support from such persons as former New York state governor Herbert H. Lehman, Bernard Baruch and the Rt. Rev. Charles K. Gilbert, Protestant Episcopal bishop of New York.

New Education Move

Meanwhile, a new move started in Congress today to rescue federal aid to education from the religious controversy now surrounding it. Rep. Morton (R-Ky.) said he is drafting a bill based on the principle of state needs.

It would omit restrictions on parochial school assistance which have been denounced by Roman Catholic churchmen.

Mrs. Roosevelt said in her letter: "I believe that there should be freedom for every child to be educated in his own religion. In public schools it should be taught that the spiritual side of life is most important."

"I should be happy if some agreement could be reached on passages from the Bible and some prayer that could be used. The real religious teaching of any child must be done by his own church and in his own home."

Cardinal Spellman, stating that America's Catholic youth fought equally with those of all other faiths in the recent war, asked in his letter to the late president's widow: "Would you deny equality to those Catholic boys . . . ? During the war years you visited the hospitals of many countries . . . Then how is it that your own heart was not purged of all pre-

Revenue Agents In a Gun Battle

PINE BLUFF, Ark., July 27—(P)—A brief gun battle between federal revenue agents and three Negroes accused of moonshining was disclosed today.

One of the Negroes, James Franklin, 64, Jefferson county farmer, was wounded in the leg during the exchange of shots in the swamps along the Arkansas river near here.

At Little Rock, Rex P. Hayes, chief of the federal alcohol tax unit office for Arkansas, said the shooting occurred Monday morning. He said he received the report of the incident today.

Hayes said the agents, whom he declined to identify, found the Negroes at an site of an operating still. When the Negroes saw the agents they ran to a nearby cane thicket and began firing at the officers.

Following an exchange of shots Franklin surrendered. He suffered a flesh wound in his right leg. The other two were arrested yesterday.

judices by what you saw these, our sons, suffer?"

Mrs. Roosevelt replied:

"I have never visited hospitals and asked or thought about the religion of any boy in any bed. I have never in a military cemetery had any different feeling feeling about the graves of the boys who lay there. All of our boys of every, race, color and creed fought for the country and they deserve our help and gratitude."

"It is not my wish to deny children anywhere equal rights or benefits. It is, however, the decision of parents when they select a private or denominational school, whether it be Episcopal, Wesleyan, Jewish or Roman Catholic."

Purifying Water In Park Lagoon

Approximately 300,000 gallons of water was aerated by local firemen at the Liberty Park lagoon today for the purpose of purifying the existing viscous substance in the lagoon.

During this operation of aerating the body of water, five streams of water are being spread over the lagoon. An auxiliary pump, which throws 500 gallons of water a minute is being used in the task.

It has been several years since the lagoon has thoroughly been cleaned out. Tin cans, card-board boxes, etc., have been thrown in the lake, which have helped to pollute the water.

Former Preacher Slain at Tampa

TAMPA, Fla., July 27—(P)—A former Baptist preacher was shot to death today and police said the shooting was admitted by the father of a 15-year-old organist with whom the churchman eloped recently.

The Rev. John P. Lane, 35, died in a hospital shortly after he was fired upon following a brief street argument in downtown Tampa.

Detective Inspector D. D. Stephens said Ward C. Cornelius, 52, father of Mrs. Lane, was arrested for questioning. When advised that Lane was dead, Stephens quoted Cornelius as saying:

"Thank God for that."

No formal charges have been filed.

Cornelius said he drove alongside Lane's car at a traffic light and tried to talk to him. The former minister remained silent. Cornelius stepped out of his car and walked toward his son-in-law. He said he fired when Lane appeared to be reaching for something.

Lane recently had been engaged in boys work for the YMCA here. He had been married before and recently criticized by the Tampa Bay Ministers Association following the elopement.

Direct Filing Of Affidavits

NEW YORK, July 27—(P)—The international executive board of the CIO steel workers union today unanimously directed the union's officers to file non-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley law.

The action came after a speech at a closed meeting by Union President Philip Murray, who had been one of the strongest holdouts against signing the affidavits.

The resolution adopted by the board said the union "dedicates its entire membership to the unfinished task of repealing the Taft-Hartley act and restoring the Wagner act with improvements designed to safeguard labor's basic rights."

However, the resolution added that "in order to safeguard the interests of the membership and to go forward with the organization of the unorganized within our jurisdiction," the board directs all the union's international officers and officers of local unions designated by top officials to sign the non-Communist affidavits.

Murray has insisted all along that the steel workers union is free of Communist influence, but he has asserted that it objects in principle to a requirement for union officers to sign such affidavits.

Fire Damages Two Autos

Fire of undetermined origin damaged two automobiles this morning. At 1:30 o'clock, the fire companies were called to the 100 block on South Kentucky avenue to extinguish a 1932 Ford coach, owned by L. Robertson. Damages were estimated at $75.

At 7:50 o'clock the fire companies went to 612 North Harvey avenue, where a 1941 Studebaker had caught fire while in the garage. The blaze was out upon the arrival of the firemen.

C. S. Landess, owner of the automobile, told firemen he put the car in the garage that night, and when he went to get it this morning, the inside of the car was nothing but ashes. The rear cushions and upholstery were destroyed.

It was believed to have been a smothering type fire which continued for several hours, and finally went out, due to lack of oxygen, since the window glasses were raised.

Approximately $350 damage was reported.

New Effort On Education Federal Aid

Mrs. Roosevelt replied she was not biased but still believes in separation of church and state.

As mail flooded in on congressmen, many members came to the conclusion that aid-to-education was dead for this session of Congress at least—killed off by its religious aspects.

Morton voiced agreement with those holding this view, but he said his bill would serve as a vehicle for action at the January session. He added he is hopeful it can supply grounds for a compromise of religious difference.

However, most members were pessimistic of another compromise proposal. This was a $35,000,000 school health bill approved Monday by a House Commerce subcommittee to meet in part Catholic objection to the general Barden aid-to-education measure.

This compromise would permit spending federal funds on health and transportation aid to public, private and parochial schools alike.

W. H. Beech Sued For Huge Amount

WICHITA, Kas., July 27—(AP)—A Michigan woman has filed suit for $101,264.35 damages against Walter H. Beech, president and founder of Beech Aircraft Corp., Wichita.

The plaintiff, Virginia Crow of Detroit, charges Beech with gross negligence and "wilful, wanton and reckless acts" which, she alleges, led to her permanent injury in a highway accident in Canada, Aug. 1, 1948.

She charges the 58-year-old Beech was riding in the front seat as she drove her car on route 16 between Lake Louise and Leamonton, near Edson, Alberta.

She was driving on loose, rutted gravel at about 30 miles an hour, her petition charges.

Beech "saw, knew, or should have known," that she was having difficulty driving," the petition recites, but "did start to put his hands all over the body of this plaintiff."

She "requested him several times to stop," it adds, but "he refused to stop" and "finally he jerked the right hand of the plaintiff off the wheel" and she "lost control of the automobile."

It veered, rolled over, reversed direction, and came to rest on its wheels, the petition says.

Stating that Beech has "the reputed wealth of approximately two and a half million dollars," the petition asks $50,000 punitive damages and $51,264.35 in other damages.

President To K. C. Centennial

President Harry S. Truman has promised to attend a special mass meeting and program June 3, 1950, the city's 100th birthday, Wilson reported.

Wilson said he had conferred with Postmaster Jesse Donaldson and arrangements have been completed to print 500 million 3-cent stamps, commemorating the centennial.

He also reported progress on a commemorative 50-cent piece to sell for $1, which is expected to raise about $250,000 for centennial expense.

Various events are planned from May to November, including an industrial show in the municipal auditorium.

Florida Negro Shot By Posse

PERRY, Fla., July 27 — (P) — Ernest Thomas, identified as the fourth Negro in the recent Groveland rape case, was shot and killed by a posse north of here Tuesday.

Taylor County Sheriff Bill Towles said Thomas was definitely identified as one of four Negroes who raped a 17-year-old housewife July 16 after beating and robbing her husband.

He said the Negro, who had been trailed by a large group of officers since Sunday night, was shot when he ran after being found asleep in a dense wooded area.

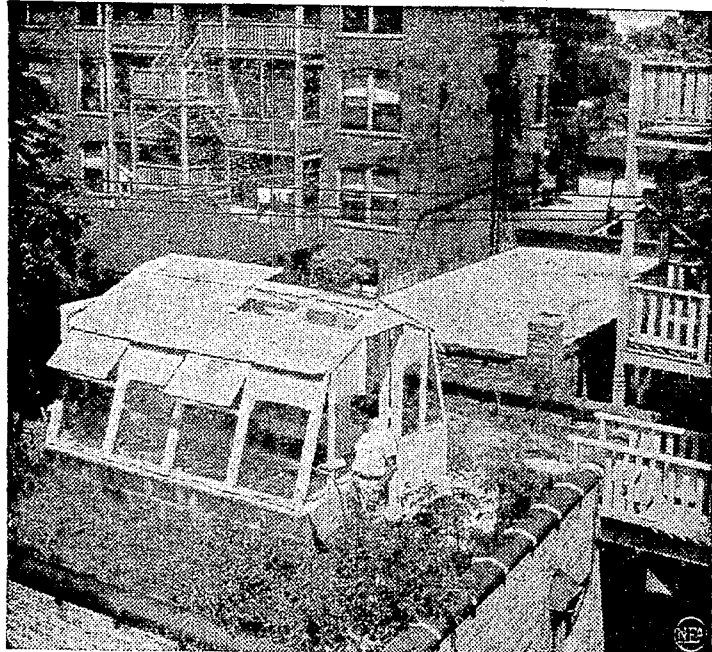

The Groveland attack on the young white woman resulted in a reign of white mob terrorism in the small Lake county community for several days. Gov. Fuller Warren was forced to call out the National Guard to preserve order. The three other Negroes charged with the crime are in custody and have been indicted by a special Lake county grand jury. They are held in an undisclosed jail.

Sixty Days For Stealing Articles From Automobiles

Marvin Fox was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail after he pleaded guilty in magistrate court, Tuesday, to a charge of receiving stolen property.

He was arrested in connection with the taking of some articles from an automobile near Flat Creek, recently, while a group was swimming in the creek after leaving the car.

GARAGE-TOP GREENHOUSE — Hemmed in by apartment buildings in a crowded section of Chicago, John Thompson chose a unique spot for his garden. He built a complete greenhouse on top of his two-car garage, connected by a runway to his rear porch. The aerial oasis can also be used as a family sun room. Thompson complacently waters his garden as he surveys his "rural" domain.

Henry Ferguson Is Killed Near Versailles

Henry Ferguson, age 56, was killed instantly about 6:15 o'clock Tuesday evening when the truck in which he was a passenger hit a tree on the Coal Bank road, about seven and one-half miles south-east of Versailles.

Mr. Ferguson's son, Virgil, was driving the Ford truck at the time of the accident, when it apparently hit something in the road, causing the driver to lose control. It ran into a ditch and then swerved to the opposite side of the road and hit a tree. Mr. Ferguson was pinned between the truck and the tree. The door of the truck was open, indicating he may have tried to jump.

Clarence Hayes, who was following the truck on the road, called the Kidwell ambulance from Versailles, and Dr. B. L. Medicus, Morgan county coroner, who viewed the body.

Mr. Ferguson is survived by his widow and several children. He lived on a farm on the Coal Bank road about ten miles from Versailles. The body was taken to the Kidwell funeral home.

Doctor Removes Own Appendix In Research

TELLURIDE, Colo., July 27 — (AP)—Dr. George C. Balderston was back at work Tuesday, two days after removing his own appendix.

Sunday afternoon at the American Legion hospital Dr. Balderston got all the proper tools together and summoned a friend, Dr. Richard Gladman.

He told Gladman to stand by in case anything went wrong. Then, without using mirrors, Dr. Balderston went to work. In a sitting position he handled the entire operation on himself and after about 45 minutes he closed the wound with clamps and stitches.

The idea? "I wanted to get a first-hand reaction of a patient to local anesthesia. And I wanted to study post operative effects." He said he figured he had proved patients should "get back on their feet as soon as possible after surgery."

He said he felt fine.

Mrs. E. N. Pizer

Louis J. Knipp, Sr., and Norbert (John) Knipp, father and son, have been awarded a Missouri State highway road contract. It calls for grading and re-surfacing nine miles of farm-to-market road near Macon. The contract was let at a figure of $36,000. Two other sons of Louis, Arthur and Louis O., who have just completed building four miles of roads in Boone county at approximately $3,674, have just been let a four-mile contract in Saline county at $18,500. A fourth son, Joe, is looking after the soil conservation work while his father and brothers are taking care of highway projects. Louis J. Sr., is president of the Knipp Construction company, the sons being co-partners.

Lon Carey, formerly of Tipton, now of Kansas City, is recovering from a major operation he underwent Saturday morning at St. Joseph's hospital in Kansas City. Visiting him in the hospital Sunday were three sisters, Mrs. Ol Schultz, Mrs. Jewell E. Richards and Miss Gussie Carey, and a brother, M. E. Carey, of Tipton. The sisters and brother were joined there by another sister, Mrs. Fred Esser, Sr., of Dewey, Okla., who came on to Tipton, returning to Oklahoma Monday, through Kansas City.

Tipton was host to a district meeting of Managers in the Rural Electrification association Tuesday. A business meeting was held in the afternoon at the Co-Mo offices and in the evening a picnic was enjoyed at the Lake of the Ozarks by the co-op managers, their wives and families. There are five rural electrification districts in Missouri, Tipton being a member of the Central group. Other cities in this district having co-operatives are Sedalia, Higginsville, Columbia, Fayette,

Athletics to Meet Jefferson City Eagles

The Sedalia Athletics will face some of their strongest opposition of the year tonight when they meet the Jefferson City Eagles, a colored team, at Liberty park. Game time is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock.

Manager Vincent Siegel of the Athletics announces that his starting hurler will be either Bus Walker or Ralph Shippley, with Elwood McMackin to do the catching chores for the night.

Rough Competition

The Athletics have a score to settle with the Eagles. In the first game of the State Semi-Pro tournament at Jefferson City, the Eagles defeated the Sedalia aggregation 4 to 2, setting them down with only three hits. Tonight Sedalia will be out to avenge the loss, but will meet rough competition in doing so.

A season's record of 16 victories and only four defeats gives an indication of the power of the Capitol City team. The Athletics enter tonight's contest with a record nearly the same—14 wins and six losses. Both teams have done well in their first 20 games of the season.

Power Hitters

The Eagles carry some powerful hitters. Big Ramon Bagby, star first sacker, hit a home run in Jefferson City that cleared the left field fence at the 344 foot mark with plenty to spare, then went ahead and smashed two singles for a three for four record for the night. Donald Comper, a speedy fly hawk playing center field, had a double and single in four times at bat that game.

Good fielding is also a mark of the Eagles, and they played errorless ball in the Jefferson City contest. Mickey Brewer, a 20-year-old catcher, does a neat catching job.

A's Batting Averages

Here are some statistics, however, to show that the Athletics will be able to cope with the strong visiting nine. The following batting averages have been announced for these Sedalia players: Beismeyer, the leading hitter, is now batting .413, with Taylor at .406 above the charmed .400 mark with him.

Other averages: Jacobs, .391; G. Thompson, .365; Walker, .340; Wolf, .338; and McMackin, .279.

Auo Racing In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY—Many of the midget auto racing fans here at Olympic stadium have the feeling that Offenhauser racers can go chase themselves as long as Bud Hemphill is around in his Ford-powered midget.

The 28-year-old driver, who is competing in his third year of racing, showed nearly 6,000 fans last week end that he could win a 25-lap feature over 10 Offenhausers by a half-lap margin. It was the third feature victory of the season for the current point standing leader and one more will set a new record over the 1948 season. His chance will come up Sunday night in the regular program at Olympic stadium starting at 6 p. m.

Hemphill's Ford, originally Clay Smith's, has been built into one of the fastest race cars seen in this area for several seasons. He is a shop foreman for a Chevrolet-Oldsmobile concern in Pryor, Okla., and rebuilt the car to suit himself. Naturally he is confident that the right kind of a Ford can outclass an Offenhauser. A natural-born driver, Hemphill seldom takes a risk or endangers other competitors.

Indians Beat Toledo 3-1

By The Associated Press

Indianapolis, after breaking St. Paul's stronghold on the American Association lead, is off and running.

The Tribe expanded its top spot to 1½ games over the Apostles last night by shading last-place Toledo 3-1. The Indians scored all their runs in the opening round, cracking three doubles and a homer off Hal White.

Nanny Fernandez contributed a two-run circuit clout while little Dom Ballessandro, former Chicago Cub, doubled home the third tally in his first time at bat for the Tribe.

Milwaukee assisted Indianapolis' lead by whipping St. Paul 3-1 in 10 innings behind the 10-hit pitching of Norman Roy who went the route.

Kansas City Into 6th Place

Kansas City drove into sixth place with a double victory over Minneapolis. The Blues took the first 11-3 with a nine-run display in the fourth inning. They tallied four times in the seventh of the afterpiece for a 9-6 count. In all, Kansas City uncorked eight homers in the two games.

Louisville, slipped ½ game back of Kansas City and Columbus, kept in the battle for fifth place with a 3-2 win over the Redbirds. Colubus now rates a .465 percentage to .462 for Kansas City and .461 for Louisville.

Tonight's schedule: Indianapolis at Toledo. Louisville at Columbus. Milwaukee at St. Paul. (Only games scheduled).

Fort Smith Whipped Topeka 3-1 And 5-1

By The Associated Press

It must be discouraging to whack a full game off your handi-cap in a baseball pennant race and still find yourself seven and one half games behind the leader.

That's what happened last night to the Fort Smith Giants who whipped Topeka's Owls 3-1 and 5-1, yet remained well behind the leading St. Joseph Cardinals who had their game at Hutchinson postponed because of rain.

The Leavenworth-Salina game at Salina also was rained out.

In the only other game played last night Muskogee's Reds walloped three Joplin pitchers for 15 hits and a 14-4 victory. It increased the Reds' third place lead over Joplin to two full games.

Doubleheaders are scheduled for St. Joseph at Hutchinson for Leavenworth at Salina tonight. Joplin is at Muskogee and Topeka at Fort Smith.

Cards Now in Lead by a Game And Half

By The Associated Press

Let no man deny it, the St. Louis Cardinals are a warm ball club. They've beaten the Phillies. That means something because Philadelphia has been the one club the Cards couldn't handle. Until last night the Phils had defeated the Redbirds nine times in 15 games.

Just home from a trip that left Brooklyn in dreadful grief, the result of three straight Cardinal victories and one tie, Eddie Dyer's men set their bats for the long range last night and downed the Phillies 9 to 5.

Brecheen Allowed 2 Homers

After the third inning they never allowed any doubt about the issue, despite the fact that Harry Brecheen was less than sharp. Harry gave up nine hits, including two home runs.

That victory put the Birds a game and a half ahead of the Dodgers, who bowed to the Brooklyn Cubs yesterday 6 to 0. Brooklyn tries again at Chicago today, and the Cardinals meet the Phils again tonight at Sportsman's Park, with big Red Munger going against Hank Borowy.

Stan Musial, who really caught fire at Brooklyn, now has ten hits for his last 12 times at bat. Last night he and Enos Slaughter each got two doubles and a single. Red Schoendienst made four hits, including a double, and Glen Nelson singled twice and doubled.

Ex-Cardinal Dick Sisler put the Phils ahead 2 to 0 with a first-inning homer, but the Redbirds countered with four runs in the third, and from that point they had their way with four Philadelphia pitchers — Robin Roberts, Ken Trinkle, Curt Simmons and Charlie Bicknell.

People In 31 States Want Tickets

For the Cardinal - Brooklyn series starting Friday night, tickets have been requested by people in 31 states, as far away as Maine, and all the reserved seats have been sold.

The betting bookies, who don't often miss, now have the Cardinals 4-to-5 favorites to win the National League pennant. As late as Friday they favored the Dodgers at 9 to 10. Now, if you choose the Cards, you have to put up $5 to win $4.

In Philadelphia last night the Browns had a ball game won until the ninth inning, when the Athletics tied the score at 4-4, and then scored again in the tenth.

Schmitz Shuts Out Dodgers

CHICAGO, July 27—(P)—Johnny Schmitz, who specializes in beating Brooklyn, did it again yesterday with a seven-hit, 6-0, victory for the last place Chicago Cubs. It was the Dodgers' fourth straight loss, a new season high. Three first-inning runs off Joe Hatten were more than enough for Schmitz who has pitched each of Chicago's three wins in 13 meetings with Brooklyn.

Coming on the heels of the disastrous St. Louis series, the loss was a severe blow to the Dodgers' pennant hopes at the start of their third western trip.

• Sport Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, July 27 —(P)—It was a double-barreled complaint against Bobby Locke that led to his being barred by the PGA, according to word relayed to this department. . . . The Inverness officials at Toledo didn't receive word from Bobby that he wasn't coming until July 14, a week before the tournament. By that time programs and other printed matter had Locke's name. . . . The Western Open encountered a similar situation. . . . and the players are burning because Locke asked Dutch Harrison to line up some exhibitions for the week preceding Inverness and Dutch hasn't had any direct word yet about cancelling them. Naturally those sponsors are unhappy, too. . . . More "inside" news is that the Big Ten and National Collegiate A. A. offices, which have been combined for several years, will be split apart as soon as the NCAA finds the right man to handle its setup.

Strain on Credulity
Umpire Red Jones, who is working the "crooshial" Yankee-Indian series, gets a lot of chuckles by telling about Charlie Strain, who used to umpire with him in the Piedmont League. . . . Strain had a fine voice and was soloist at a Richmond, Va., church. . . . During a road tour of North Carolina, Charlie was invited to be guest singer at a local church. . . . The pastor announced: "Umpire Charlie Strain will sing hymn No. 270," then looked surprised when a titter ran around the congregation. . . . Seems when folks opened their hymn books they saw the title: "Open Thine Eyes."

Shorts and Shells
The U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce has a field of kid golfers from 42 states and the District of Columbia for its National Junior Golf championship at Houston next week. . . . Clark Shaughnessy figures his L. A. Rams will have the fastest backfield in football this season. . . . Hope he's not handing out a line.

Red Sox Own Brightest Young Pitching Star in The League

By Joe Reichler

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The biggest break the Boston Red Sox got this season was when Maurice "Call me Lefty" McDermott swallowed his pride and consented to return to the minors for more seasoning.

Because of that decision, the Red Sox today own the brightest young pitching star in the American league.

Last April, when Manager Joe McCarthy farmed him out to Louisville, the 20-year-old left-hander was so incensed that for a while, he was ready to return to his home in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. "I was so mad then," the youngster was quoted as saying the other day, "that I was ready to blow my top. I guess, for once, I had some good sense. I thought it over, and came to the conclusion that McCarthy was right."

Not long after McDermott set an American Association record by striking out 20 St. Paul players in a single game. Lefty was recalled by the Red Sox. That was on June 12. Since then he's made six starts and won four of them. His two defeats were by 1-0 and 5-4 scores.

Pitched Beauty Last Night

Young McDermott pitched another beauty last night as the Red Sox chopped up the Chicago White Sox, 11-2. In going the route for the fifth straight time, the lanky fireballer allowed six hits, walked six and struck out seven.

The Yankees and runner-up Cleveland Indians were idle. The St. Louis Cardinals increased their National league lead to a game and a half over Brooklyn. The Redbirds walloping the Philadelphia Phils, 9-5, after the Chicago Cubs had shut out the Dodgers, 6-0.

Johnny Schmitz, an old Brooklyn nemesis, blanked the Dodgers with seven hits. It was the Brooks' fourth straight setback. Sam Chapman's single with two out in the tenth inning scored Eddie Joost with the run that gave the Philadelphia Athletics a 5-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns.

2,000th Hit of His Career

Wally Moses, veteran Philadelphia outfielder, singled in the fifth for the 2,000th hit of his major league career. He became the third active player to accomplish the feat, and the 86th in baseball history. Luke Appling of the White Sox and Dixie Walker of Pittsburgh are the other actives to hit 2,000.

The Detroit Tigers handed the Washington Senators their 11th successive defeat as young Ted Gray spun a five-hit 6-2 victory for the Bengals.

Dino Restelli backed Ernie Bonham's six-hit pitching with a two-run homer to lead the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 4-1 triumph over the New York Giants.

The Cincinnati Reds knocked out Johnny Antonelli, Boston's $70,000 bonus pitcher, in the second inning and went on to whip the Braves, 6-3.

Invitations Sent to Three Leading Golfers

SPOKANE, Wash., July 27—(P)—Spokane's free-spending athletic round table says it has put up a $6,500 purse in an effort to lure Bobby Locke, Sam Snead and Carey Middlecoff here for a "world championship" golf match next month.

The round table said last night invitations have been sent to all three but that it has received no replies.

Locke, the British Open champion, has been banned from all tournaments sponsored in the United States by the Professional Golfers' association for allegedly failing to keep tournament commitments.

The round table said it got the idea for the tournament from a suggestion in a column by Whitney Martin of the Associated Press.

Bartlesville Won Twin Bill Over Carthage

By The Associated Press

Most interesting phase of the K-O-M baseball race at the moment is the battle for third place between Bartlesville and Carthage.

Bartlesville, which lost the third spot to Carthage a couple of days ago, won it back last night by whipping the Missourians in both ends of a double bill, 9-3 and 6-4, at Carthage. It put Bartlesville a game and a half ahead of Carthage.

The Pirates plastered the ball for fourteen hits in winning the seven inning game. They got seven doubles and three triples.

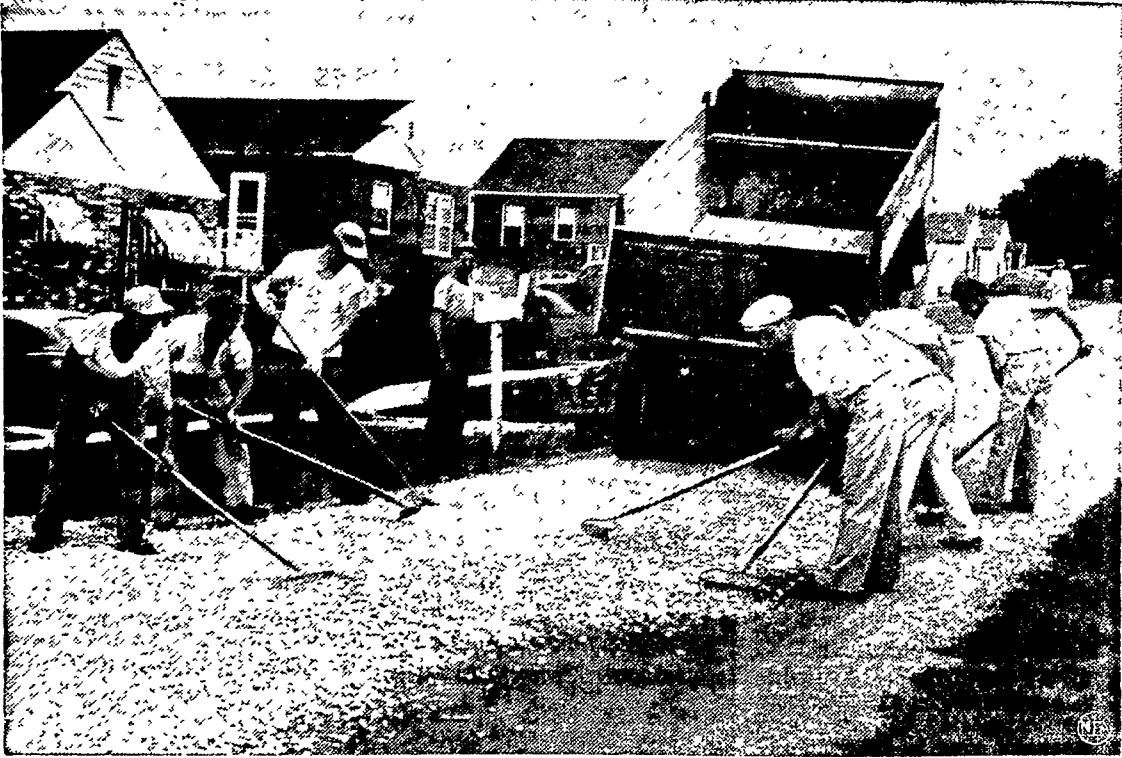

Bartlesville came from behind in the sixth inning to win the nightcap.

NEIGHBORS KNUCKLE DOWN—After appealing repeatedly to the highway department to re-surface their street, the 21 families living on this St. Louis County, Mo., suburban street decided there was only one course of action. They would fix it themselves. They pooled the money and muscles necessary and dug in. Here, the men of the street, mostly young veterans, spread part of the 45 tons of rock they bought to fill in the gaping holes, which, they say, have broken auto springs and caused blowouts.

Anti-Poll Tax Bill Is Passed

WASHINGTON, July 27—(AP)—After an angry debate, the House passed an anti-poll tax bill Tuesday 273 to 116. It would outlaw the poll tax as a requirement for voting in primaries and elections in which federal office-holders are chosen.

Item Of Civil Rights Program

The measure, the first item of President Truman's civil rights program to be acted on at this session of Congress, now goes to the Senate. Opponents are confident it will be pigeonholed or filibustered to death if any move is made to take it up there. Four times previously the House had passed similar bills, only to see them die in the Senate.

Southerners fought the bill bitterly in the House, saying such measures encourage the rise of the Ku Klux Klan. Northerners replied that the poll tax disfranchises large masses of people and enables "narrow, bigoted" men to control some southern states. Opponents argued in vain that if the poll tax is to be outlawed it should be done by constitutional amendment. They failed, 266 to 123, to send the bill back to committee so a constitutional amendment could be substituted for it.

South Can Assess Tax

The bill says the imposition of a poll tax as a voting prerequisite is "an interference" with elections and "an impairment of

THERE IS NO SANTA CLAUS—YOU PAY THE BILLS—Uncle Sam is spending a lot of money these days—in fact, more than he's taking in. And you're the guy who's paying for it, through taxes. This map gives a breakdown of how much you and other tax-payers kicked into the federal kitty during 1948. ## Back To California Minus Butch The Cat

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., July 26—(AP)—Miss Helen Weekly of Los Angeles has gone onto her home without Butch, her tiger-striped cat. But she is still advertising in hope some one found him.

The cat was brought east on a vacation trip. By the time the party reached Springfield, Mo., Butch was suffering so visibly from the heat that the group stayed two days so the cat could have a cool room.

At the edge of St. Joseph Butch jumped out of the car and disappeared.

Miss Weekly said she is afraid the cat will starve, for his diet consists of green olives, strawberries, dates, raisins and avocado pears and his finders might not offer him such delicacies.

Grants Permit To Hike Fares
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 27.—(AP)—Missouri Public Service Commission gave Kansas City Public Service Company authorization today to raise its fares on street cars and buses.
The new rates will be 13 cents straight or two tokens for 25 cents for adults, five cents straight for children.
Effective Aug. 14, the rates replace these present fares:
Twelve cents straight or three for 35 cents for adults and five cents straight or six for 25 cents for children. Those rates were authorized last September in an earlier rate case.
The company said that because of increased operating costs it lost $14,840 during the first four months of this year. The commission estimated the loss during the same period was even higher, $23,348.
The commission estimated the higher adult fares would produce $562,275 more a year and the straight five cent children's fare an additional $3,565.
At the same time the PSC ordered the company to eliminate a five cent zone fare collected from Northeast high school students at Blue Ridge boulevard. This would cut the company's annual revenue about $6,750 a year. The zone charge would be retained for other adult riders.
Thus the new fares would give the company a net increase in revenue of $559,090 a year, bringing the total operating revenue to $13,784,588. On this basis the net income would be $185,086 a year.

Wants Unions Under Federal Anti-Trust Law

Former New Deal Trustbuster Appears In Coal Hearing

WASHINGTON, July 27—(AP)—Thurman Arnold, former "new deal" trust-buster, Tuesday urged Congress to bring labor unions under the federal anti-trust laws.

"It is a very dangerous thing," he said, "to permit unions to monopolize the labor supply without any curbs whatsoever."

Arnold testified as a witness before the Senate banking committee, which is investigating the coal industry and the tactics of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers union.

Hearing On 3-Day-Week

Senator Robertson (D-Va) called for the inquiry as an outgrowth of a June 30 decree by Lewis setting a three-day work week for his miners in the coal fields. Robertson yesterday denounced the abbreviated week as "a bold, overt act" to fix prices and hold down production.

Arnold, chief of the justice department's anti-trust division during the late President Roosevelt's regime and now in private law practice in Washington, told the Senate committee that the three-day week was initiated to create a coal scarcity and thus place the miners' union in a favorable position for "the next strike."

Without a change in the present anti-trust laws, Arnold said, it would be easy for unions and management to get together and do "the very things which the anti-trust laws forbid."

Supreme Court Decision

He noted that the supreme court in several cases, has virtually exempted unions from the anti-trust laws.

Therefore, he said, it would be a simple matter to fix prices and restrict production—without violating anti-trust laws—by having the union "initiate" such a move and then the employers "give in."

Arnold told the Senators that if the coal operators wanted to raise their profits, they could do so by "being acquiescent" to such a scheme.

Major coal operators testified yesterday that Lewis' three-day week had been "imposed" upon them over their objections.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 27—(AP)—Talk of a showdown with John L. Lewis over the three-day week for coal miners came last night from an operator source.

Harry M. Moses, negotiating spokesman for U. S. Steel and a veteran of coal contract talks, told reporters:

"The three-day week has made a messy situation from the standpoint of safety, costs and every progressive mining technique."

He made the statement in absence of the President of the United Mine Workers. Lewis remained in Washington—away from the resumption of contract talks recessed June 30.

Lewis sent word he was "delayed." There was no further explanation.

75% Okinawa Buildings Damaged In Saturday's Typhoon

TOKYO, Wednesday, July 27—(AP)—The Far East Air Force reported today 75 per cent of its buildings and installations on Okinawa were damaged by 150 mile an hour typhoon winds Saturday.

Damage to B-29s and other planes was held to a minimum, the Air Force said, by crews who stayed in the roped down, sand-bagged machines and kept noses of the aircraft pointed into the wind.

Decline in Net Steel Income

NEW YORK, July 27—(AP)—Net incomes of United States Steel Corp., declined to $44,123,595 in the second quarter this year, the corporation reported on Tuesday. This compared with $49,928,670 for the first three months of 1949.

Directors of "Big Steel," meeting after the New York stock exchange closed, ordered a dividend of 50 cents a share on the corporation's new common stock. It was made payable Sept. 10 to shareholders of record Aug. 5.

On the old common shares, a dividend of $1.50 was declared three months ago. Since that time each holder has received two additional shares for each share held, to effect a three-for-one split of the stock.

U. S. Steel's second-quarter net income is equal to $1.45 a share on the more than 26,000,000 common shares now outstanding. On the same basis, the net for the preceding three months was equal to $1.67 a share.

Upholds Law on After Hours Sale

JEFFERSON CITY, July 27—(AP)—A bartender who sells liquor at 3:50 a. m. can be prosecuted for violating state liquor laws, Attorney General J. E. Taylor ruled Tuesday.

The opinion was written by assistant attorney general Aubrey R. Hammett, Jr., for Jasper R. Vettori, associate prosecuting attorney in the city of St. Louis.

Vettori cited a case where the holder of a tavern license was in the hospital and knew nothing of the out-of-hours sale. But Hammett concluded the liquor laws are broad enough to cover illegal activity of a bartender as well as the tavern owner.
